

Sculptures

In ancient greece sculptures were used to record how people remembered the leaders of that time. This is still something we do today for some of our leaders and people who have changed history.

Dionysus is the god of vine and viticulture. He is still celebrated today during festivals to celebrate the beginning of spring. Alexander the Great One of the world's greatest military generals, he conquered and Macedonia to Egypt and in only 13 years..

created a large empire from Greece to part of India

Modern Sculptures

Mount Rushmore

Abraham Lincoln

