

STROKE AWARENESS MONTH PRESENTATION

Angie had a stroke at the age of 29 and currently serves on the SSEEO Board of Directors. She has her Ph.D. in Organization Development and resides north of Denver, Colorado, with her husband and two children. She enjoys indoor rowing, pilates, and camping. Angie loves new adventures in Colorado and will be sharing resources and ideas for adaptive sports for stroke survivors.

Jenny Kray is a stroke survivor, SSEEO volunteer and first-time author. After suffering a severe brainstem hemorrhage in 2015, Jenny has used her faith, determination, and background as a former occupational therapy student to guide her recovery. Hear more about Jenny's journey and her new book "My Other Half"... a memoir. The book is now available on Amazon. Click here for link.
