REACH FOR MORE AFTER STROKE:

Learn how you can regain more hand and arm function with a new, FDA-approved, technology that works with your brain to increase the benefits of conventional rehab by 2 to 3 times.

Vagus Nerve Stimulator is an FDA-approved implantable device that stimulates the vagus nerve. When the vagus nerve is stimulated and is paired with rehabilitation, it can help create new neural pathways in the brain through neuroplasticity, which can then help improve motor function.
