A note from the Toss the Boss team:

As we head into year six of Toss the Boss, the community support has been amazing!! Thank you for being brave, signing up, and sharing your stories. Recovery from acquired brain injury looks different for everyone, but with your help we can ensure no one faces life after brain injury alone.

June: Brain Injury Awareness Month

June at Nanaimo Brain Injury Society is a time to recognize and celebrate the resiliency of those living with brain injury. Behind every jump is a story of courage and strength. Each bungy not only honors those stories, but also raises essential funds for programs and services to support survivors and their families; helping them rebuild, connect, and thrive.

"NBIS has helped me dramatically transform my life. I moved to Nanaimo to access proper care and after other organizations recommended NBIS, I found the guidance I needed—it was a team effort."

Behind every jump is a story.

Last year, Nanaimo Brain Injury Society supported more than 250 acquired brain injury survivors and caregivers. The injury is often invisible, but the impact can be life-altering.
