Subject: Letter of Endorsement for Chief Robert Bage – 4th Vice President, IACP

Dear Members of the IACP Election Committee,

On behalf of the Orange Osceola County Chiefs Association, it is our honor and privilege to offer our strongest endorsement for Chief Robert Bage as a candidate for 4th Vice President of the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP) and pledge to vote for him in 2026.

Chief Bage has brought more than two decades of exemplary law enforcement service since beginning his career in 1999. He served with distinction in the North Miami Police Department, rising through the ranks to the position of Assistant Chief. He now serves as the Chief of Police for the Fort Walton Beach Police Department, where he continues to lead with professionalism, innovation, and a steadfast commitment to community-focused policing.

In addition to his department leadership, Chief Bage currently serves as President of the Florida Police Chiefs Association, representing over 1,000 law enforcement leaders across the state and demonstrating his influence and respect at both the state and national levels.

Chief Bage's educational background further enhances his qualifications. He holds a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology from Florida International University and a Master's Degree in Public Administration from Barry University. His dedication to lifelong learning and executive development is further evidenced by his participation in some of the most respected leadership programs in the field:

- FBI National Academy – Session 248
- Senior Management Institute for Police – Police Executive Research Forum (PERF)
- Chief Executive Seminar – Florida Criminal Justice Executive Institute

Chief Bage is also a proud veteran of the United States Navy, bringing with him a deep sense of service, discipline, and honor that has shaped his approach to leadership and public safety.

Throughout his career, Chief Bage has consistently demonstrated vision, integrity, and a collaborative spirit. He exemplifies the values of the IACP and has shown the ability to lead and inspire across diverse communities and professional environments.

The Orange Osceola County Chiefs Association offers its full and enthusiastic support for Chief Robert Bage's candidacy for 4th Vice President of the IACP. We are confident that his leadership will be an asset to the IACP and to the future of our profession.

Respectfully,
