A Note from Miss Trish:

As educators transition from the school year to summer break and camp, the staff at Miss Trish's are busy preparing for our Fall sessions of CDA courses. Whether you are a seasoned veteran in need of a CDA renewal or new to the ECE field, Miss Trish's has high-quality training available for you! We encourage you to enroll your Educators in an accredited CDA program such as Miss Trish's to ensure they are receiving the guidance they need and gain invaluable knowledge to support the young learners in their care. Our staff at Miss Trish's are here for you and your staff through all steps of the CDA Program and look forward to helping your staff succeed!

UPDATE FROM THE COUNCIL FOR PROFESSIONAL RECOGNITION

The Council for Professional Recognition has announced the addition of "the Child Development Professional™: The Best Next Step" in credentialing for Early Childhood Educators. This credential will be designed to recognize experienced educators who have already earned the CDA, and who demonstrate excellence in a variety of areas including leading in classroom practice, mentoring peers, and improving quality in programs. The Council will be collecting feedback throughout the year and expects to set credential guidelines in 2026.

IN THE NEWS

HEAD START NEEDS YOUR HELP! As part of recent budget proposals, Head Start programs are threatened with significant cuts in funding, resulting in the decrease or elimination of essential resources for young children. YOU CAN HELP by contacting local lawmakers and representatives and educating them on the importance of continuing funding for these programs. Visit the Council for Professional Recognition's website to "Make Your Voice Heard" and easily contact these lawmakers and encourage them to support Head Start.

WELLNESS TIPS

Set yourself up for success in the new school year!

- Review last year's lesson plans and make note of what went well & what didn't.
- Keep an eye out for sales on school supplies.
- Freshen up your wardrobe with comfortable and professional looks.
- Read a book by the pool for fun or for professional development.
- Take some time to relax before another exciting school year!

FEATURED CHILDREN'S BOOK

Pete the Cat and His Magic Sunglasses

by Kimberly and James Dean gives children a new perspective on how to deal with a bad situation. With his magic sunglasses, Pete changes his grumpy mood into an awesome day!

-Math: Ask children how they feel today and make a graph to compare results.

-Science: Discuss the types of weather seen throughout the story.

-Art: Design your own "magic sunglasses" out of cardstock, markers, and more.

-Social/ Emotional: Brainstorm things you can do to cheer up a friend if they are feeling sad.
