

“Code of Conduct”

When participants follow the Code of Conduct, it helps keep the programs stay safe and fun for everyone at JL Performance Horses. Parents and children must read and sign the Code of Conduct acknowledging they will follow and uphold them:

1. Be nice, kind, helpful, and respectful to other participants, counselors, instructors and staff;
2. Be honest, honor my commitments, and accept responsibility for my choices. This extends to providing your child’s FACTUAL age on all paperwork including registration.
3. Use language that is respectful and kind. Not use curse words.
4. Wear appropriate clothes that are suitable on the farm for horseback riding and other farm activities.
5. Not bother, fight with others, or do anything unsafe. Not touch anyone in a way that is inappropriate.
6. Be prepared for each day with items listed on the checklist including, but not limited to, food and drinks.
7. Know that adults can search my things (like my backpack) if they think I might have broken the rules.
8. Be where I am supposed to be when I am supposed to be there.
9. Not leave the area unless an adult in charge gives me permission.
10. Be responsible for any damage caused by my actions. Parents will be financially responsible for property damage caused by their child. (broken windows, doors, etc.)

Consequences

Breaking the Code of Conduct will include telling that participant’s parent or guardian. Consequences for breaking the Code of Conduct/ rules may include:

1. Sending the participant home. No refunds, no credits, no exchanges will be issued for any monies paid to JL Performance Horses.
2. Having the participant meet with adults, talk about how the participant can learn from what they’ve done, and decide what the participant should do to make up for any harm done.
3. Charging the participant (or their parents/guardians) for the cost of repairs to property that the member damaged and/or food and/or services and/or supplies. Any charged debts are to be paid in full within 3 days.
4. Giving the member a warning, barring them from future events, suspending their participation, or terminating their participation and or registered enrollment. No refunds, no credits, no exchanges will be issued for any monies paid to JL Performance Horses.
5. Taking the participant to the nearest law enforcement agency or other proper authority.
