

Dear WMQG Members,

Wasn't last meeting delicious! The delectable treats we brought drew us into the meeting with expectations of divine items. I was not disappointed! Potluck is one of my favorite meals.

In June, we will be having some guests from the Stillwater Guild. They have asked if they could show us their Raffle Quilt during our meeting. Mitchie arranged this after they contacted her. Since they will be coming from such a long way, I hope to put them at the front of the agenda. Their Quilt Show is in September. I hope they bring tickets to sell.

Our Board has already been working to get us into this new year. Kathy Hepner made sure The Constitution newspaper put in a story on Wednesday the 29th. It will also be in the Sunday paper in the Styles section. Good job, Kathy!

Lenor and Mitchie are making brain cells burn so they can have interesting and different programs. If you know of someone who would bring new techniques, old ones with a twist, or maybe something else that they can research, send them an email with your ideas. Input is necessary for this to be our/your Guild.

Summer is a good time to finish up those projects gathering dust. I am especially good at make piles, not getting them done. If you have one that you finished, please be sure and bring it. The rest of us who have those kinds of dusty projects, get busy. I will have one done by meeting time. Fingers crossed.

Be safe, stay dry, and be happy!

Regards,

Nancy Wicker
