

Wichita Mountains Quilt Guild

Bringing quilting and fiber arts to everyone

November
2022

Hello Quilty friends,

At our October meeting, the guild proved that quilters don't just make beautiful quilts but know how to have a fun time as well. Thanks to all who shared their quilts, participated in the challenge, dressed up and made it an all around fun meeting.

Are you familiar with the saying, "sounding like a broken record"? Holidays will soon come and go and the new year will be here before we realize it. Per the by-laws, a nominating committee is to be appointed no later than the beginning of February. Please be thinking about being on the nominating committee and/or serving as an officer of the guild. For 2023-2024, beginning 1 May, the guild needs a president, vice president, secretary, treasurer and program chairman. The guild also needs a quilt show chairman. Yes, I'm going to be "sounding like a broken record", but if the guild is to continue, officers are needed.

I'm looking forward to seeing you and having more quilting fun at our November meeting.

Meeting was called to order at approximately 6:40 pm by Carol Johnson, Guild President. Since this is the Annual Quilt Airing and Potluck, members ate first. The business portion was started at 7:12 pm.

Minutes: A motion was made by Cindy Shepard and seconded by Kasey Johns to approve meeting minutes. All members approved the motion.

Treasurers report: Report was unavailable but Kasey Johns, Treasurer, reported the ending balance.

Old Business: Carol announced that we still need a Quilt Show chairman.

New Business: Members were asked to start thinking about serving on the board next year. When the new board is chosen, a transition meeting will be held.

A letter was read thanking us for the pillow cases that were made for the children at Casa. Carol Ann thanked Renee for her community service work.

Membership: October birthdays were celebrated.

There were 17 members present.

There were 10 guests present, Kara who is vice coordinator for the faith based leadership for girls group and several of the girls. This group is for 5-18 year olds. They are learning about textiles now.

Community Service: 47 pillow cases were made and given to Casa.

Renee and family installed the new shelves in the WMQG storage building.

She had many items (from Linda Grubbs donated items) for members and guests who wanted them.

November 11, 9:00 am to 12:00 pm we will be getting together with the American Heritage girls to help them with quilting. It is at the Western Hills Church of Christ (by Scotts House of Flowers). Volunteers are needed.

The new Home Economics located at Life Readiness Center (Old Tomlinson school) needs volunteers to help teach.

She has 15-16 stocking kits for members to make. They will go to family promise center and be filled with hygiene products. If you can take a stocking and/or just bring hygiene items by next guild meeting.

The next Sew Social will be October 24. There will be no Sew Social for November and December.

Programs: Tonight's program is the Quilt Airing/Bed Turning and Potluck. Quilts were shown and the quilt owners told about each quilt.

The theme for tonight's program was Scooby Doo. Those members wearing costumes were asked to explain about their costume.

The Color Table Runners were judged. There were four submitted with first place went to Kathy Burnett and 2nd place went to Vicki Nightingale.

Future Programs:

November: Cindy Simmons trunk show November 14, guild meeting night and her Fractured Paintbox class will be November 19th. Payments for the class and/or pattern were due tonight.

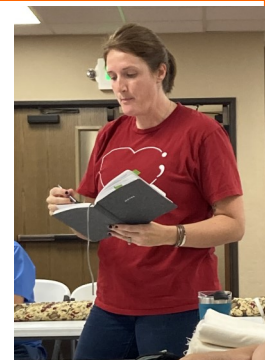

December: The theme will be Lime Green so be thinking how to decorate your table. This will be catered.

The meeting was adjourned.

Kathy Burnett, guild secretary

Volunteer Call!

We have 2 great opportunities coming up and we need 1-3 people to volunteer for each event to make it successful for the kids.

1. November 2 AND November 8 with Janet and Rene teaching the LPS FACS class - 9-patch potholder.

There are two classes each day, one at 10 am with 7 students and one at 12 pm with 13 students. We will complete the block in week 1 and complete the potholder in week 2. No supplies are required, just your passion for spreading quilting joy to the new generation!

2. November 11 with Kathy and (maybe) Rene teaching the American Heritage Girls how to make pillowcases to earn their textile arts badge.

There are 9 girls of varying sewing abilities, this will be a one-time event from 9 am-12 pm at their church.

Please consider donating a few hours to enrich the lives of future quilters in our community!

Please contact Rene with any questions or to volunteer - (727)599-1372 or rene.palaniuk@gmail.com

Refreshments are Peggy Coe, Cathy McDaniel & Carol Johnson

Cards were sent to Donna Klein, Jan Crain-Wayman and Cris Ross

November 14, 2022 Program:

Cindy Simmons Trunk show!

Hey Everybody!

Wow, WOW , wow! We had our Quilt Airing and Scooby Doo was in the house. We even got to see the Mystery Machine. Velma and Daphne and even a Shaggy were there too. The janitor villain was borrowing stuff all through the meeting. The quilters who dressed up really rocked. You guys are so amazing! I loved how creative some of the costumes were. I know our guests thought we are some really radical adults. Quilters in WMQG are the COOLEST!

November's program is the trunk show with Cindy Simmons. Cindy will have her newest quilt she has created to show us. She is an establish Judy Neidmyer teacher. Cindy has been a certified teacher of Judy Neidmyer patterns for years. Her bubbly fun personality is amazing upbeat fun. Her trunk show is going open your eyes to how beautiful paper pieced quilts can be. The skill and techniques you learn will help with more than just paper piecing. She will also have extra patterns and fabric and some kits for sale the night of the meeting.

For those who are taking the class, I know that you are going to enjoy this class. On November 19, 2022 Cindy will be teaching the Fractured Paint Box class at First Baptist EAST church. If you signed up for the class we will be meeting at 8:30am in the middle building on the side of the church. De Fizzell will be contacting all those who signed up for class with all additional information you will need for the class.

One final note, some people have backed out of the class and we have some openings. If you want to take the class, contact De Fizzell for more information at the meeting or any time before the class date.

Class cost: $30.00 Pattern cost: $30.00

Upcoming Events:

November: Cindy Simmon Trunk show
