

Wichita Mountains Quilt Guild

Bringing quilting and fiber arts to everyone

Hello Quilty Friends,

I think time goes by faster when you are enjoying time with other quilters. That's what it felt like at the OQSO fall retreat. Sarah Ann Smith gave an interesting lecture on Friday evening and I learned new things in my thread painting class on Saturday. I added instead of subtracting, which was my intention over the weekend. I took two unfinished projects to work on and brought home three unfinished projects.

The guild received a very nice thank you note from CASA of SW Oklahoma for the donation of pillowcases. Thank you to all who sewed pillowcases. I'm so glad to see the guild involved in sewing for the community.

This spring, the guild voted to have another quilt show in 2024. This year is three fourths over and we do not have a quilt show chairman. Please let a board member know if you are interested in this position. Vicki Nightingale can answer any questions that you might have.

Looking forward to seeing you at our October meeting.

Quilt Show Chairman

Meeting was called to order at approximately 7:00 pm by Carol Johnson, Guild President.

Minutes: A motion was made by Cris Ross and seconded by Janet Light to approve meeting minutes. All members approved the motion.

Treasurers report: Was read by treasurer. A motion to approve it was made by Vicki Nightingale and seconded by Chris Frick. The report was approved.

Old Business: There was no old business.

New Business: Girls Heritage troop, middle school is earning their textile badge and would like someone to explain quilting to them. IT was discussed that the girls could possibly visit and help community service. It was then discussed to invite them to the October quilt airing.

Ways and Means: Prizes were drawn.

There were no September birthday persons present.

There were 17 members present, and two new members. Welcome Linda and Laurie!

Drag and Brag was held.

Community Service: Rene told how many items had been given to the community. A few of those include 39 pillowcases to CASA, 9 bibs to Monte Vista. She asked if members could donate hygiene items for a local cause. The next community service/sew-social is September 26 th (4 th Monday). There have been several patriotic quilts, she asked if anyone could take one to quilt it.

Rene priced shelving for the storage unit. The cost is $324 for 2 large 6 ft by 6 ft metal shelves at Lowes. A motion was made by Jean Peterson to approve the cost of $324 for Rene to buy the shelving, it was seconded by Kathy Burnett and the motion passed.

Programs: Tonight's program was sewing on community service projects. Several members brought their machines.

Dee reminded us of upcoming programs:

October: Quilting Airing will be held at this church (First Baptist West), theme is Scooby Doo, bring a potluck dish and your color expression table runner challenge. There will be games.

November: Cindy Simmons will give a trunk show at our meeting and then give a class for the Fractured Paintbox Saturday, November 19 th . Signup sheet is at membership table.

December: This years Christmas meeting theme color is lime green, Dee is asking us to bring something to help her decorate with that color theme. The meal will be catered from McCallisters.

The meeting was adjourned.

Community Service

Hello fellow quilters!

We had our 3rd successful community sew social event on September 26th. Community Service sew-socials will continue every 4th Monday of the month from 10 am - 2 pm at First Baptist Church in tandem with the Killer Bees meeting. The next one will be on October 24. We will take a break for the holidays in November and December and resume on January 23rd!

The next big focus will be finishing the QoV-esque quilts for Veterans at the Vet Center and the Veterans Home and finishing the fidget aprons to take to Ten Oaks Assisted Living. For the winter project, we will assemble 16 Christmas stockings (kits will be available at October meeting) and stuff with hygiene and self-care items for donation to Family Promise of Lawton.

What we've done:

- 39 pillowcases made and donated to CASA of Southwest Oklahoma
  - 9 dignity bibs completed and donated to Montevista Rehab
  - Large tote of apparel fabric and notions donated to LPS FACS program
- 70 small project kits donated to Girl Scout troop 21

What we're doing:

- Fidget aprons are in progress for donation to Ten Oaks
- 9 completed quilt tops to be quilted and donated

Great Opportunities coming up:

American Heritage Girl troop sew day - we need a few volunteers to teach/lead projects, Extra sewing machines will need to be brought for their use. I can make the kits. Date options are Oct 14 and Nov 11, please let us know ASAP if you're available!

Quilting classes at LPS Home Ec (now called FACS) class at Life Ready Center. We need to set dates and coordinate 3-4 of us who can attend each day. October 9, I will be at the storage unit to clean and organize, if you'd like to help let me know! (727)599-1372

We are doing great things and I appreciate all of you! I am trying to coordinate projects that require less sewing on our part — if you've got ideas or organizations that could use our support, let me know!

October 10, 2022 Program:

SCOOBY DOO QUILT AIRING!

Howdy My Quilty Friends,

This is the Scooby Doo month. Are you ready to so off you creativity with your costume? I am and I have it on good authority I look bow wow awesome. I will be providing the main dish of Scooby dawgs and all the trimmings. Please bring a yummy side dish for us all to share. I am sure we will have a great time. Please bring a quilt or two we can air out for you and of course love on.

SCOOBY DABA DOO!!!!

If you participate in the color challenge bring you it to the meeting for us to vote for the coolest, best use of color and the one that reads the best emotions to you. I hope you enjoyed this challenge. I enjoy learning all the colors. I have developed a whole new education on how colors impact our lives.

November program is the trunk show with Cindy Simmons. Cindy will have her newest quilt she has create to show us. She is an establish Judy Neidmyer teacher. Cindy has been teaching for years and a really fun person to be around. I know that you are going to enjoy this class. On November 19, I will let you all know where will be meeting for the class at the guild meeting. The class fee is $30.00 and if you ordered one of the patterns that is $30.00. The total for the class is $60.00. Please bring this amount to our October meeting so I can order all the patterns for November's class, the Pattern name is Fractured Paint box by Judy Neidmyer.

Upcoming Events:

October: Quilt Airing Scooby doo Theme Color Block Table runner Challenge

November: Cindy Simmon Trunk show

November 19, 2022 Fractured Paint box class with Cindy Simmons

December: Guild Christmas Party! Lime Green is this year's color, start thinking on your table decoration

As we found during the quilt show, we get the most response from your individual social media posts. That being said, post this or something similar to your friends with an appropriate picture.

Look what we are doing Monday night at Baptist East. Come join me. I've been working on my own table runner for the challenge. Bring ANY project you'd love to share if you wish!
