

CHOPSTAR IMPORTANT NOTICE: HUMANS

Dear fans and music lovers,

I am writing this with a heavy heart and a sense of responsibility to all of you who have been eagerly waiting for the release of Chopstar's EP titled 'Humans and Music'. It is with deep regret that I have to inform you that the release of the album, which was supposed to be on the 27th of September 2024, has been delayed due to unforeseen circumstances.

As an artist, I pour my heart and soul into my music and I strive to create something that resonates with my audience. This EP is very special to me as it reflects my personal journey and experiences.

The main reason for the delay is the unexpected issue with the release from stores. As much as I wish I had control over these things, unfortunately, there are certain factors that are beyond my control. The music industry is a complex world, with multiple parties involved in the process, and sometimes things don't go according to plan. However, rest assured that I am doing everything in my power to resolve this issue and get the EP released as soon as possible.

I want to sincerely apologize for any inconvenience caused. I know you are all excited and waiting to listen to the new songs, and believe me, no one wants this EP to be released more than I do.

In the meantime, I urge you to keep supporting and spreading the word about 'Humans and Music'. Your love and support are what keeps me going and motivates me to create more music for you. With your help, we can make this EP a huge success when it finally releases.

Thank you again for your love, patience and understanding. Let's stay positive and look forward to celebrating the release of the EP as soon as possible. Until then, keep listening to good music and spread love wherever you go.

*Sincerely,
Chopstar*
