With a strong foundation in House Music, Chopstar has been crafting musical chemistry for over eight years.

From a young age, he has been in love with music. He joined the entertainment scene as a teenager and was intrigued with spinning records and making crowds of people dance. He taught himself how to blend and mix tracks, drawing inspiration from radio shows and DJ mixtapes. With determination and hard work, he mastered this craft and was able to mix smoother and create seamless transitions between songs.

He has called house music his home for a number of years now and is constantly pushing the boundaries and experimenting with new sounds.

When asked about his role models in the music industry, Chopstar mentions Black Coffee, Darque, Culoe De Soul, Dj Kent, DJ Shimza, and Black Motion among others. Their unique styles and success have inspired him to constantly improve his own skills and strive for greatness in the industry.

His music has not only caught the attention of party-goers but also industry reference artists. His tracks have been played by some of the top DJs in the continent and have proven time and time again that they can reach the record bags of the DJing elite.

Chopstar always stays true to his roots and proudly represents his South African heritage.

As a full-time globe trotter, Chopstar is constantly looking for new inspiration and experiences to infuse into his music. He believes that travel and exposure to different cultures is essential for growth as an artist. Whether he is performing in front of a large crowd or producing new tracks in the studio, Chopstar's passion for music is evident in everything he does.

With a prolific and impressive discography, Chopstar has made his mark on making a collabo with Darque and Murumba Pitch on their biggest hit "Ntfombi". His latest batch of unreleased productions is an intense gathering of drums, working with a defined sense of groove and depth designed for the dance floor and beyond.
