Dear Dr. Jaeger Gustafson,

I am writing to extend acceptance on behalf of the Alberta Regional Massage Therapy Association (ARMTA) to Yue-Gustafson School of Health Professions for the successful completion of the recent school audit conducted by ARMTA. Yue-Gustafson School of Health Professions has not only met but exceeded the criteria and standards set forth by our association.

The audit process, started on November 25, 2024, thoroughly assessed various aspects of Yue-Gustafson's curriculum and policies, and standards. I am pleased to note that Yue-Gustafson has demonstrated exceptional commitment to excellence, adherence to best practices, and a dedication to providing a high-quality educational experience for students.

In light of the successful completion of the audit, Yue-Gustafson School of Health Professions is hereby approved by ARMTA, and we acknowledge the hard work, dedication, and commitment of the entire school community in achieving and maintaining the high standards set by our association. This approval signifies that Yue-Gustafson School of Health Professions is recognized by ARMTA as a distinguished institution that upholds the values and principles of quality education.

Once again, congratulations and we look forward to a continued partnership in maintaining and enhancing educational standards.

If you have any questions or require further information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Aliana Kanji
