

It has been an awesome month . . .

“For the word of the cross is folly to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.”

1 Corinthians 1:18.

Anyone who knows anything about world missions

today understands a great revival is emerging in the global south - Africa, South Asia, South America - and even China. At the same time missions are very slow going in what was once the “Christian West.”

Over spring break 17 students, 2 professors, and 7 Cru staff traveled to Belgium, from March 8 to 16. We came from Indianapolis and Chicago and our purpose was to bring the gospel (again) to the campuses of Europe - specifically, Belgium. Once these campuses were places where students primarily studied the Bible and theology. Like many schools in the US, a worldview that ignores God has taken hold among the students and faculty here.

But students and faculty are open to talking. Besides meeting with a few previous professor contacts, Jenny and Abby, our UIndy professor friend were introduced to half a dozen other business professors. The students interacted with their peers at the University of Antwerp and KU-Leuven. In all the team initiated conversations 193 times, had 147 spiritual conversations with 77 of those leading to gospel presentations and we met people from 22 countries. What a great way to spend spring break! See our website (address below) for more pictures and news.

Answered Prayer

Thank you so much for praying for our professor conference on February 23-24. While our numbers were small, the content was superior. Here are some of the comments from those who participated:

I will be focusing on the fact the students in my classroom need guidance, need encouragement, and need someone who can love them given the loneliness epidemic, and all at a time when they are making their first real decisions on their own.

IU Business professor

This conference gave me a vision to strive for and helped me to see clear ways that I can better serve my students.

UIndy professor

Again, thank you so much for standing with us. We appreciate you!
