Frederick Douglass

THEATER AT BARANCO

Roger Guenveur Smith returns with this theatrical monologue inspired by the life and work of the self-liberated abolitionist, statesman, and orator Frederick Douglass in his third PASA appearance.

Using Douglass's classic 19th century texts, Smith has created a jazz-infused narrative, bookended by original, forceful writing to produce the kind of edgy stylistic mash-up of which vital contemporary theater is made. You'll be moved!

Join Skye, a Lafayette native whose talent has sparked national attention, and a special guest or two when she celebrates the music that has brought some of cinema's most memorable moments to life. Who doesn't love Prince's "Purple Rain" or Celine Dion's "My Heart Will Go On?"

Dr. Jekyll & Mr. Hyde

Thursday, March 11, 2027 • 7:30 PM
HEYMANN CENTER

Aquila Theatre, at long last, returns with a bold and compelling new adaptation of Robert Louis Stevenson's timeless tale The Strange Case of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. Aquila puts its unique spin on this feverish dream in which Stevenson's Gothic horror exposes the treacherous and terrifying nature of a fractured self.

Unable to quell his darkest desires, Dr. Henry Jekyll becomes convinced he can separate the good and evil within. Using science, he believes he can sever his two identities and unleash a terrifying double life by creating Edward Hyde. The daring experiment spirals into a desperate struggle between the two identities, as each battles for control and survival.
