ABOUT ME

Over 900 Familes serviced in Central Florida: $350M Volume

English/Spanish

Daniel Araque is renowned among colleagues and clients alike for his integrity, loyalty and professionalism. Daniel has been living in Orlando for the past 23 years and takes pride in being a Gator Alumni, graduate of the University of Florida. He has succesfully led over 900 families into homes and closed over $350M in volume.

He is an excellent communicator, negotiator and sales representative, who primarily focuses on truth, accuracy and productivity. His experience in the Florida real estate market is year in and year out around around the top-producing residential real estate agents. Daniels congenial personality makes him welcome wherever he goes and his client list includes not only local buyers and sellers but also international investors.

"As an informed, well thought out decision maker, I understands the components in maximizing your individual real estate situation. Timely information and constant communication are crucial in this business and I do my best to accomplish your goals."

Daniel is an animal lover and enjoys spending time with his family and traveling. Daniel is also the founder of Keller Williams Wildlife Legacy, a non-profit organization that raises awareness of the ongoing threats to worlds most endangered animal species and connects realtors though wildlife mission trips. -- www.kwwlegacy.com--
