

Isaiah Sees God

A Sermon By Bishop Andy C. Lewter, D. Min.

Isaiah 6:1

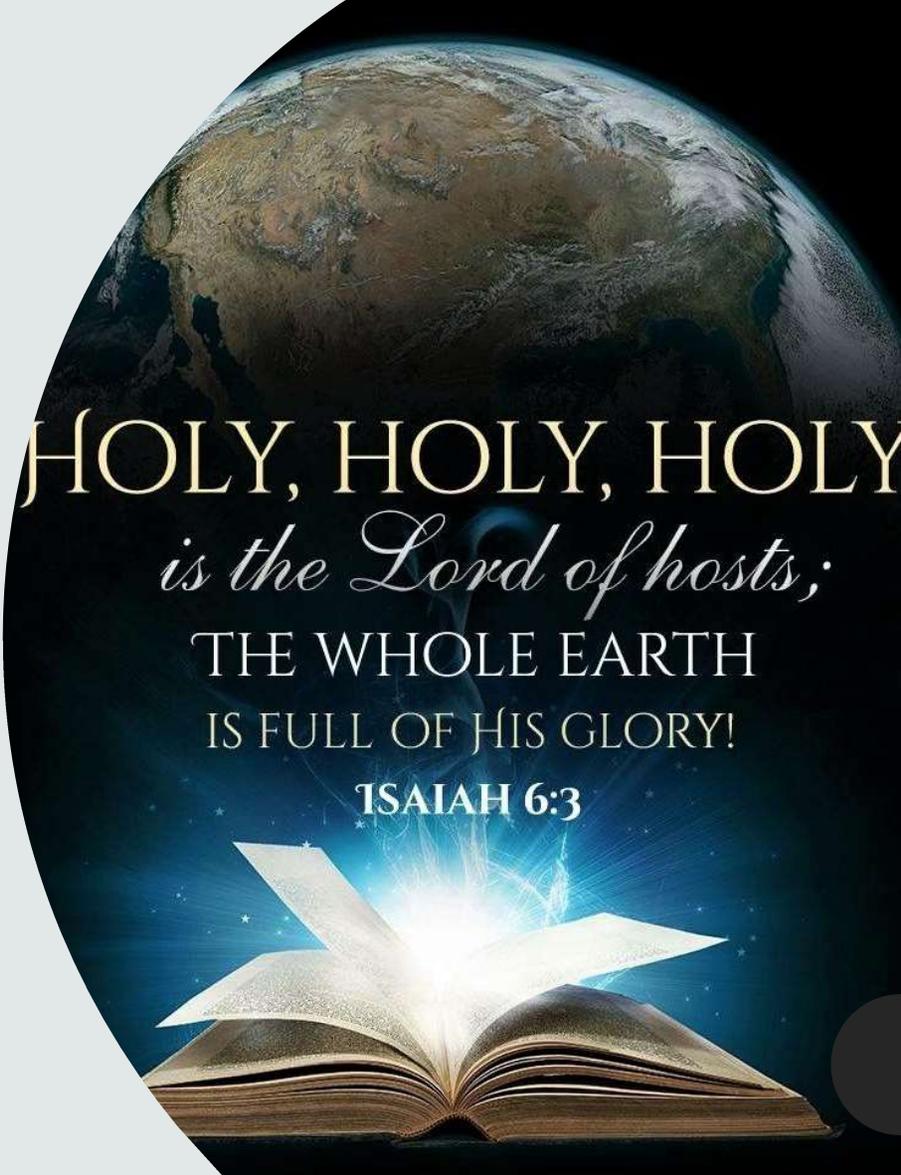

6 In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord, high and exalted, seated on a throne; and the train of his robe filled the temple. ² Above him were seraphim, each with six wings: With two wings they covered their faces, with two they covered their feet, and with two they were flying.

³ And they were calling to one another:

“Holy, holy, holy is the LORD Almighty;
the whole earth is full of his glory.”

⁴ At the sound of their voices the doorposts and thresholds shook and the temple was filled with smoke.

HOLY, HOLY, HOLY

is the Lord of hosts;

THE WHOLE EARTH IS FULL OF HIS GLORY!

ISAIAH 6:3

Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?”
And I said, “Here am I. Send me!”

Isaiah 6:8

The Importance of this Election

The consequences of this election is too important for us not to speak truth to power

A photograph of Donnie Swaggert, a man with grey hair and a mustache, wearing a tan plaid blazer, a light blue shirt, and a blue patterned tie. He is seated at a wooden podium, pointing his right index finger towards the camera. The background is a dark red wall with a large, stylized white graphic of a person's profile. The text "Somebody Needs to Speak" is overlaid on the left side of the image in a white, italicized serif font.

Somebody Needs to Speak

This past week Donnie Swaggert suggested that somebody needed to speak to the Black Church, how about speaking for the Black Church
