

The Bible
Way Of Dealing With

ANGER

There is a right way, but most choose the wrong ways.

#INSIDEOUT

Introduction

- It doesn't take long to figure out that we live in an angry world.
- Read the headlines on any given day and you see anger on display in politics, movies, TV shows, and sports.
- Spend any amount of time in most families and you'll see anger expressed almost daily.
- Sadly, the church hasn't exactly been the poster child for pursuing peace and reconciling conflict in a God-glorifying way over the course of church history.
- Even though Jesus "broke down the dividing wall of hostility... so that we could have peace" (Ephesians 2:14–16), we still quarrel and fight

- It's inevitable—wherever there are relationships, sin and anger will be expressed.
  - By nature, we're all selfish.
  - I'm no exception.
  - Cut me off in traffic, I might have some words for you (I'll roll my window up, of course).
  - Do something I perceive as disrespectful, watch out—I might get a little passive aggressive and withdraw from interacting with you because I have a heart of fear.
  - If you "reject me," I get insecure, defensive, and may hurt you by holding back.

- See, that's how deceptive sin can be.
- It affects our ability to think reasonably and rationally.
- While I am not immune, I am also certain I'm not alone in my struggle (1 Corinthians 10:13).
- But God, in his grace, mercy, kindness, patience, and love has made us alive through the death, burial, and resurrection of his Son, Jesus Christ (Ephesians 2:4–9).
- It's only because of Him that I'm pursuing humility and meekness as a way of life.

- Some if not many of you have problems with anger.
- As God's children, we can all make this journey of change together.
- Here are some things I have learned over the years in my fight against sinful anger.
- Understanding and applying these truths to your own life will help you overcome sinful anger and see sustained fruit.

Anger Appears In Three Forms:

- 1) explosive and blowing up;
- 2) stewing, brewing, or silent indignation;
- 3) irritability, exasperation or embitterment.
- Silent anger is just as offensive to God as explosive anger.
- How are you prone to express your anger?

Anger Hurts Relationships:

- You choose who is on the receiving end of your anger because anger is a perceived threat to something you hold valuable.
- The problem is we can go a whole day at work being “nice” to our co-workers only to lose it at home with those closest to us!
- We tend to take it out on those we are called to love the most.
- Who has been on the receiving end of your anger the most?

Anger is in the Bible:

- The Bible has a lot to say about anger.
- From the beginning in the garden all the way to the end; man's anger is expressed by rejecting God and pursuing his own way (Romans 3:10–18).
- *Yet man's anger does not accomplish God's righteous purposes
(James 1:19–20).*

- While God too can be angry, it is never sinful (Psalm 7:11; John 3:36; Romans 1:18).
- Actually, compared to the offenses He must suffer, He is very “slow to anger” (Exodus 34:6; Psalm 103:8).
- And for that we should be very thankful.
- But also think about this question:
- Does your anger accomplish God’s purposes?

Anger Put Jesus on the Cross:

- Did you know that the anger of man and God's wrath for all our sins culminated onto Jesus when he went to the cross to pay the penalty for sin (Acts 2:22–24)?
- He satisfied God's wrath and allowed man to express their anger towards him at the same time—man rejecting God and God loving man in the very same event in history.
- How often do you reject God in your anger by not doing what He calls you to do?
- Do you feel perhaps that God is angry with you?

Anger Is Covered by Christ's Blood:

- The blood of Christ is sufficient to cover your sinful anger.
- No matter what wrath has protruded from your mouth or what you've done physically to harm others or yourself, you can be forgiven and walk in newness of life.
- Anger is a sin, but the death of Christ is payment enough to cover it.
- If you have died with Christ, you become a different person (Romans 6:5–11).
- Do you believe and live as if your anger is covered by the blood of Christ or do you act like His blood isn't sufficient?
- Of course we are speaking of past anger. Continued anger is a continual sin and not covered by Christ's blood.

Anger is a Life-dominating Sin:

---

- Just like any other “addiction,” we become enslaved to anger.
- It temporarily satisfies our sinful desire and flesh, yet we feel guilty and ashamed when we give full vent to it.
- It’s a vicious cycle of self-destruction.
- Are you stuck in a vicious cycle of anger?
- If so, you can be set free (1 Corinthians 6:9–11).

Anger is an Expression of False Worship:

- Like all other “addictions,” anger has false worship at its core.
- When you express your anger sinfully, ask yourself, “What am I not getting that I really want or that I’m willing to sin to get?”
- Your answer will reveal what you’re living for in that moment.
- Something else has captured your heart more than God, and you’re seeking a false refuge; and that is called idolatry.
- What’s captured your heart more than God?

Anger is Often Just a Fruit:

- It usually has fear at the root and more specifically, it is the fear of man.
- While anger may be all we can see at times, at the heart of it is a fearful, insecure, unsafe, untrusting heart looking for something from man that only God can satisfy.
- Learn to love God more with reverent awe and fear because then you'll learn to need people less.
- Remember that perfect love casts out fear (1 John 4:18) and that you are perfectly loved by your heavenly Father.

Anger Can Be Righteous:

- Ephesians 4:26 says, “Be angry and do not sin.”
- You express righteous anger by becoming angry about what angers God.
- Jesus died not only to free you from sinful anger but to enable you to be angry with God not at God.
- Is your anger expressed righteously or sinfully?
- How can you tell the difference?

- The only way out is to surrender your anger to God.
  - Do not control or manage it in your flesh.
  - God is the judge, not you or me (James 4:11–12).
  - Are you ready to step down from the throne of your mini judgment seat and allow God to be God?
  - Remember, “vengeance is mine,” says the Lord (Romans 12:18–21).

Anger Must Be Surrendered:

Conclusion

- If you have anger in your heart, you cannot go to heaven.
- You must find a way to remove this horrible sin from your character.
- Following God's direction and fulfilling His purpose is the only way that is effective.
- God will help you remove the anger that you have.
