“Therefore, my brothers and sisters, you whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, dear friends.” Philippians 4:1 (NIV)

Checking our Attitudes, our Thinking and Behaviors – Walk This Way!

The writer Paul, an Apostle to the Gentiles, writes this letter to the Philippian Church to encourage, instruct and even rebuke the members, as he also shares with them his love and joy in knowing them, as well as his desire to see them.

In this section of the letter, in the first half, we see that Paul has listed several items in closing that he wants the church to concentrate on. He tells the readers to:

Be United, Joyful, Exemplary (a good example), Prayerful and Check your Thinking!

As we revisit this chapter of Philippians, we will look at the things that Paul wants us to put into practice in our Christian walk, in our daily living.

Philippians 4:1-9 (NKJV)

Therefore, my beloved and longed-for brethren, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, beloved.

<sup>2</sup>I implore Euodia and I implore Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord. <sup>3</sup><sup>[a]</sup>And I urge you also, true companion, help these women who labored with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the Book of Life.

<sup>4</sup>Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I will say, rejoice!

<sup>6</sup>Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; <sup>7</sup>and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

<sup>8</sup>Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy—meditate on these things. <sup>9</sup>The things which you learned and received and heard and saw in me, these do, and the God of peace will be with you.

Anonymous Quote:

Watch your thoughts, for they become your words.

Watch your words, for they become your actions.

Watch your actions, for they become your habits.

Watch your habits, for they become your character.

Watch your character, for it becomes your destiny.

Be United, Joyful, Exemplary, Prayerful and check your Thinking!

Paul is reminding us in this letter that we can be all that GOD has called us to be in Christ Jesus when we put forth due diligence and obedience.

He is reminding us to put off the old man and old way of thinking and be renewed in our hearts and minds and walk in the new creation that we are. It takes work – but we can do it with the Holy Spirit’ guidance and leading.

Read Colossians 3:10 – what is Paul saying to the church?
