

Summary the key findings of the survey report

- Cervical cancer growth rate is going up in Karnataka
- Diagnosed cases are more in Rural Karnataka
- Women of 26-55 years is very Vulnerable and more prone to this Disease
- Cervical cancer can be controlled by Early Intervention and Proper Treatments
- Rural cases reported were low compared to urban is due to Lack of Awareness and Facilities
- Mortality numbers are going up even though the percentage rate is coming down
- Need to Educate both Urban and Rural people about the Disease, Diagnosis, Prevention and Handling Mental trauma

