

2022-2023 Youth Empowerment Initiative Application

This program is designed to provide youth ages 5-17 that are passionate about creative and performing arts, the opportunity to participate in various performances, programs and events throughout the community. Benefits of this program include performance development, leadership skills, community engagement, and the opportunity to provide input on future programs.

The program will run from June 2022- June 2023.

This year's program is unique and separate from our other programs. There is no initial fee to participate, besides the cost of the t-shirt that will be required to attend any of the events, and the cost for some field trips throughout the year.
