

Peter Taylor

The Invisible Project Manager

AI, Leadership & the Future of Work

International Keynote Speaker, Author, AI Thought Leader

Peter Taylor helps organisations understand and lead in a world where Artificial Intelligence is no longer optional.

Known globally as The Lazy Project Manager, Peter challenges outdated thinking about productivity, leadership, and project delivery by showing leaders how to thrive as AI reshapes how work gets done. With over 500 keynote presentations delivered across 28+ countries, Peter brings clarity, humour, and practical insight to one of the most urgent questions facing executives today 'What does leadership look like when AI does the work?'

Signature Keynote

The Invisible Project Manager: AI, Leadership & the Future of Work

As AI takes on more operational and execution-heavy tasks, human leadership becomes less visible, but more critical than ever. This highly engaging keynote explores how leaders must shift from control to influence, from task management to value creation, and from doing the work to enabling intelligent systems and empowered people.

Ideal for: Executive leadership teams, transformation programmes, PMOs, digital strategy events, and future-of-work conferences.
