LOVED NOT THEIR LIVES

A1 EXTERIOR OF FLANDERS - DAY - (PRESENT DAY BELGIUM)

VARIOUS MONTAGE SHOTS OF THE PERSECUTION OF CHRISTIANS; BEING HANGED, DROWN, TORN TO PIECES AND BURNED ALIVE AT THE STAKE AT THE ORDERS OF KING PHILIP II OF SPAIN WHO IS SENDING THE DUKE OF ALBA TO FLANDERS TO STAMP OUT PROTESTANTS WHO INSIST ON READING THE SCRIPTURES IN THEIR OWN LANGUAGE.

A2 INTERIOR - DAY - THE HOUSE OF MAYOR BRUGGE

THE MAYOR IS IN HIS STUDY. WRUNKEN WALKS IN WITH HIS MORNING TEA.

MAYOR

I am so looking forward to this tea. I had such a terrible sleep last night. After having heard King Philip II's decree of the persecution of the Protestant church, it disturbed my sleep so much I dreamed about it all night long.

(he backs up to defend himself)

Not that I'm a Christian. I do believe there is a God, but have not been able to become a believer of Jesus Christ who King Philip II persecutes.

WRUNKEN (Not engaging in his conversation) How is the tea sir?

MAYOR All is good. Have you had your breakfast?

WRUNKEN

No sir.

MAYOR Go, have something to eat, you have a lot of chores today. Thank you.

WRUNKEN For what are you thanking me?

MAYOR

Just for being a listening ear to me. You know, I don't confide my dreams with just anybody. I needed the peaceful presence that I find in you to start my day.

WRUNKEN

Well, this I know, peace is only found in Jesus Christ, regardless of the persecution that follows.

MAYOR

You know, you may be right Wrunken. Go on now. Oh, and Wrunken, please clean the heirloom tea pot and cups. I'd like you to drink your morning tea from them, nobody has used them for years. Please, enjoy. You can clean them when you're doing your chores.

A3 INTERIOR - DAY - THE HOUSE OF MAYOR BRUGGE

WRUNKEN IS SITTING IN THE SERVANTS QUARTERS AFTER PREPARING HER TEA WITH THE HEIRLOOM TEAPOT AND CUP, HAVING BREAKFAST READING HER BIBLE. SHE'S READING THE SCRIPTURE WHERE JESUS TALKS ABOUT THE PERSECUTION OF BELIEVERS.

WRUNKEN

(reading quietly to herself from John 15:20,) "Remember the words I spoke to you: 'No servant is greater than his master.' If they persecuted me, they will persecute you also. If they obeyed my teaching, they will obey yours also."

Wrunken flips to the beginning where it says; "To Wrunken, I'm so glad that someone finally has found a use for this book of dreams that I could never understand fully. Mayor Brugge."

There is a knocking on the door downstairs. Another servant opens the door.

INQUISITOR We'd like to see the Mayor. We're here to search his home for Christian Bibles. He pushes the door open and proceeds to walk in. Wrunken hears what's happening and drops the tea cup and it shatters on the floor. She tears out the page in the Bible written by the Mayor, throws the page in the fire and scurries to hide the Bible in the kitchen in the bread box and cleans up the tea cup. The Inquisitor hears the noise and it tweaks his interest towards the kitchen.

The Mayor hears the commotion and comes to the foyer to see the Inquisitor and the Duke of Alba.

MAYOR What is going on here? Who are you? Why have you barged into my house?

INQUISITOR I highly suggest you cooperate Mayor, this won't take long.

Pushing the Mayor against the wall with a sword in his hand. He motions to his assistant.

> INQUISITOR Start searching the house, every part of it.

Both the Inquisitor and his assistant search the house, throwing books off their shelves in the library, going to the bedrooms, closets searching for any clue of Bibles. They go into the kitchen and when they open then bread box, they find the Bible.

> INQUISITOR (with a twisted, cynical voice holding up the Bible) I found one! Ah, the bread of life. (flipping through the pages) This looks like a full loaf of bread to me. (he pauses with a cynical look) But very costly, as in; lives. Bring in the Mayor and his family. Someone is reading the Bible in this house!

CUT TO SHOT OF WRUNKEN IN A ROOM OFF THE KITCHEN PRAYING AS SHE HAS HER EAR TO THE DOOR OF THE KITCHEN. THE INQUISITOR DEMANDS THAT THE WHOLE FAMILY BE CALLED INTO THE DINING ROOM. HE JUMPS ON THE 30 FT LONG EXQUISITE TABLE AND STARTS PARADING UP AND DOWN, WAVING THE BIBLE IN HIS HAND. SHOTS OF HIM QUESTIONING EACH FAMILY MEMBER.

INQUISITOR

I have questioned all of your family Mayor and everyone denies that the Bible belongs to them. Bring in your servants.

The servants come in and are questioned.

INQUISITOR (Coming to Wrunken) Is this your Bible young lady and are you reading it?

WRUNKEN Yes it's my Bible and I am reading it!

MAYOR

(knowing what the penalty is) No, no, no. She's only owns it, she never reads from it!

WRUNKEN

(very boldly and not shying away)

This book is mine. I am reading from it in my own language, and it is more precious to me than anything!

INQUISITOR

Thank you everyone, please excuse yourselves. I want to have a word with Wrunken.

Everyone leaves the room, very shaken up.

INQUISITOR

More precious than your life young girl?

(He presses into her face) How would you like to die? To be hanged, drown, torn to pieces or burned alive at the stake? Or maybe we'll just bury you alive! In the city wall.

WRUNKEN

(boldly and brazen) Well Mr. Inquisitor, how would you like to see me martyred? You can torture and kill my body, but you can't kill my spirit. It belongs to Jesus.

INQUISITOR

Young girl, you will suffocate in the city wall in a few days! I'll see to it that you are placed in the wall, alive, and bricked in permanently!

WRUNKEN

Huumm. I wonder how you will die some day? You know, it is appointed unto a man to die once, and then judgment. And that is far greater than what you are planning to do to me.

INQUISITOR (throwing his hands in the air) ENOUGH! (he looks at his assistants) Seize her now!

The assistant grabs her and drags her out of the house. He throws her into a horse drawn wagon.

A4 EXTERIOR - DAY

BRICKLAYERS ARE RIDING IN A WAGON DOWN THE ROAD BESIDE THE CITY WALL

MR FRANS So, where are we going? What are we working on today?

MR. GILLES We're going to, by orders of King Philip II, hue out a hole in the city wall and there, a defiant Christian lawbreaker is going to be tied inside. Our job is to close up the wall with her in it.

MR. FRANS (stops in the cart) You woke me up today to do such a horrific crime? Stop! (the horses come to a halt) I'm not for hire on this job! You can do this on your own. (he jumps off the wagon). MR. GILLES Are you crazy? This is ordered by King Philip II! The pay is extraordinary, nothing like we've ever been paid before. You'll make 3 times the wages we normally make.

MR. FRANS I wouldn't care if they paid me 10 times my normal wage. This is absolutely an unacceptable job. You're the one that's crazy. (He walks off)

A5 - INTERIOR - DAY - JAIL CELL

WRUNKEN IS SITTING ON A COLD STONE FLOOR IN THE JAIL CELL. THERE'S A RAY OF LIGHT THAT'S COMING THROUGH A SMALL WINDOW. SHE'S PRAYING PSALM 27:1-2

> WRUNKEN The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The LORD is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? When evildoers assail me to eat up my flesh, my adversaries and foes, it is they who stumble and fall.

As Wrunken is praying, the guards come into the cell, pick her up by the arms and take her out of the cell.

A6 - EXTERIOR - DAY - CITY WALL

BRICKLAYER IS WORKING ON THE JOB SITE CUTTING OUT A HOLE IN THE WALL.

MR. GILLIS (mocking the response that Mr. Frans gave) I wouldn't care if they paid me 10 times my normal wage. This is absolutely an unacceptable job. You're the one that's crazy. I'm the one that's crazy....

He starts laughing and has a bad fall as he trips over some boulders and breaks his leg. The Inquisitor is just riding up, jumps off his horse,runs over and asks what has just happened. INQUISITOR Mr. Gillis, are you ok?

MR. GILLES (painfully grabbing his leg) I don't know sir. It feels broken.

INQUISITOR

Oh, that's terrible. Who's going to hue this wall out? Do you have a worker to continue this job?

MR. GILLES Well, I did have one, Mr. Frans, but he refuses to do this job because of moral convictions regarding this young girl, Wrunken.

INQUISITOR Well, he must be a Christian also if he's defending her!

MR. GILLES No...it's just complicated that's all. Might be just having a bad day. Don't know what's got into him.

INQUISITOR

Bad day or not, he will be on the job today by MY orders, and MY order stands, like those of King Philips. Let's get you to a Dr. now and I'll go summon Mr. Frans to complete this work.

THE JAIL GUARD AND WRUNKEN PULL UP TO THE CITY WALL. WRUNKEN IS UNDER LOCK AND KEY IN THE BACK OF THE CARRIAGE. THEY STOP AND HE POINTS OUT TO HER WHERE SHE'LL BE BURIED.

> JAILER Wrunken, I brought you here to the city wall to show you where you'll be buried alive very soon. I want you to think this over because you will have an opportunity to recant your decision to read the Bible and be able to live freely.

WRUNKEN Well, I can't think of a better place to be entombed than this. Right on a main street, in the city wall. It will be a continual reminder to the Protestant believers in Flanders to not be afraid to read their Bible and if necessary, die for for their faith.

The jailer rides off with a puzzled look, shaking his head.

A8 - INTERIOR - DAY - MR. FRANS HOME

MR FRANS IS IN HIS HOME, SITTING AT THE TABLE TALKING TO HIS WIFE. SHE'S HOLDING A BABY WHO IS CRYING, AND A FEW OTHER CHILDREN ARE RUNNING AROUND. SHE'S ARGUING AND YELLING AT HER HUSBAND.

MRS. FRANS

I can't believe you turned this job down! That was triple your salary, it could have put bread on the table for the next few months!

MR. FRANS

Am I Judas? Is my last name Iscariot? This is our fellow Protestant, our sister in the Lord!

MRS. FRANS Sister in the Lord or not, she rebelled against the orders of King Philip II and should not have read the Holy Bible.

The Inquisitor pulls up outside their house on his carriage, jumps off and goes to knock on the door.

MRS. FRANS

I bet you that's Mr. Gilles right now, offering you a second chance to take this job!

She opens the door.

INQUISITOR Under the orders of King Philip II, I order you, Mr. Frans, to come with me. MR. FRANS Come with you for what?

INQUISITOR Let's just say that there's some unfinished business, as in, brick business. You were offered a job by Mr. Gilles and you will complete this job by the orders of King Philip II.

The Inquisitor motions to his assistants to take Mr. Frans away. The Inquisitor and Mrs. Frans are left standing there for a moment. He hands her a bag of money with a lustful look in his eyes, admiring her.

> INQUISITOR 30 pieces of silver and the rest will be paid in full when his job is complete.

He leaves, joins his assistants. Mrs. Frans holds up the bag of money with a happy gleam in her eyes.

MRS. FRANS "Am I Judas?". I can't believe he even said that.

A9 - EXTERIOR - DAY - CITY WALL

MR. FRANS IS HOLLOWING OUT THE CITY WALL WHERE WRUNKEN IS TO BE BURIED.

MR. FRANS (mumbling under his breath) Well, this is really interesting. Me, Mr. Frans, is now hollowing out a hole in the city wall to bury alive his fellow sister in the Lord.

He pauses, puts the shovel down Lord, you must have some higher purpose in all of this. You've seen the forcing of my hand to hollow out this hole. Have mercy on our sister Wrunken, during this trial of her faith.

THE INQUISITOR

Right now, Wrunken, a tomb is being hollowed out of the city wall and you will be tied up and bricked in but you will be given an opportunity to change your mind to stop reading the Bible and submit to King Philip's authority regarding the practice of religion.

WRUNKEN

Bricked in! (she laughs at him) Oh death, oh death, where is your sting for the believer in Christ Jesus. You can kill the body but you can't kill the soul. It's you that will live in torment, eternally separated from God, burning in hells fire! But there still is an opportunity to repent and be baptized in the name of Jesus. And we can have another section of the wall, hallowed out right beside me for you to be entombed in! Wouldn't that be great.

The Inquisitor is beside himself with anger. He leaves her, slamming the cell door behind him. As he's walking out, he runs into the Mayor who has arrived to visit Wrunken.

A11 INTERIOR - DAY- PRISON

THE INQUISITOR Mayor, what are you doing here?

THE MAYOR

I wanted to come and see Wrunken. And just maybe, she'll recant, and won't be buried alive in our city wall. Oh, and by the way, the whole city is in an uproar about this!

THE INQUISITOR (absolutely mad)

You're wasting your time Mayor. Your maid servant will not change her mind or recant. Be careful, lest she lead you astray also, so to make you believe that anyone can (MORE)

THE INQUISITOR (cont'd) read the Bible in their language. She won't repent!

The Inquisitor storms off. The Mayor proceeds inside to the prison cell where Wrunken is being held. As he approaches her cell, he hears her praying for the Inquisitor.

WRUNKEN

Father, you tell us to forgive those who persecute us, so I forgive the Inquisitor and I ask that you have mercy on him and open up his eyes to see you Jesus in your Word.

The Mayor motions to the jail guard to let him in.

THE MAYOR Wrunken, I had to come to see how you are fairing?

WRUNKEN

She draws near to him to whisper in his ear. Master, you have nothing worry about. I tore out the front page of the Bible with your note in it to me. They'll never know you gave it to me to read.

The Mayor sighs and has a sense of relief but also has tears coming to his eyes. The jailer is listening intently to what the Mayor is talking about with Wrunken. His ear is pressed against the cell door.

THE MAYOR

He whispers back

Wrunken, I wish I had the faith you have. But this Bible, it's just a family Bible to me, no meaning whatsoever. And yet I see how you changed since you started reading it. Is it real Wrunken? Is this faith in Jesus real? Is there eternal life found in reading the Bible and believing in Jesus?

WRUNKEN

She continues to whisper, Master, Jesus loves you, died on a cross for you. He didn't leave you (MORE) WRUNKEN (cont'd) as an orphan. He sent the Comforter, the Holy Spirit to comfort you. Just simply repeat these words after me.

SHOT OF THE JAILER STILL LISTENING TO THE CONVERSATION.

The Mayor repeats Wrunkens prayer.

WRUNKEN "Jesus, forgive me of my sins and forgive me for denying you."

THE MAYOR "Jesus, forgive me of my sins and forgive me for denying you."

WRUNKEN "Come into my heart and be my Lord and Saviour. Amen."

THE MAYOR "Come into my heart"

The jailer is repeating the prayer with the Mayor.

JAILER "... and be my Lord and Saviour."

THE MAYOR

Amen.

JAILER

Amen.

The Mayor is moved with emotion and tears swell up in his eyes.

THE MAYOR Now I know why you believe so strongly. This is amazing, my heart feels full and there is such peace! Now the Bible, the book of dreams that I've read over the years makes total sense. Thank you for introducing me to Jesus.

He withdraws from the prison cell, full of peace and very emotional. He walks by the jailer.

JAILER

As he's locking up the cell after the Mayor leaves. Thank you Wrunken. I over heard your prayer with the Mayor and I too received Jesus into my heart.

> WRUNKEN (smiling at him) Oh I'm so happy for you. Jesus will change your life.

The jailer is standing with his hands by his side, overwhelmed, he starts to cry.

THE JAILER I'll look after you while you're here. You're safe in my care. (he pauses) And...His care.

A12 - EXTERIOR - DAY - AT THE CITY WALL

THE MAYOR IS RIDING HIS CARRIAGE, ADMIRING THE SPRING BEAUTY WITH JOY IN HIS HEART FROM HIS SALVATION EXPERIENCE AND DECIDES TO STOP AT THE CITY WALL WHERE WRUNKEN'S TOMB IS BEING HUED OUT. HE SEES MR. FRANS HARD AT WORK. HE STOPS THE CARRIAGE AND GETS OFF.

THE MAYOR

(wanting to encourage Mr. Frans in his work) Now, that is the handy work of God! You're doing a great job.

MR. FRANS Handy work of God! How can God be in any of this?

THE MAYOR

Well, I'm sure it's not God's will, but He will be glorified in all of this.

MR. FRANS

How can God receive glory in the persecution of such a wonderful young girl? It's just not right.

THE MAYOR

Well, it's not about right or wrong. It's about Jesus being glorified through Wrunken's death. The Bible says that, 'we overcome (MORE) 13.

THE MAYOR (cont'd) by the blood of the lamb and the word of our testimony and we don't love our lives unto death'. You know Mr. Frans, death has no sting for the Christian. And this memorial will bring glory to God in the end, through others believing in Christ.

Mr. Frans bows his head and drops to his knees and the Mayor puts his hand on him as he weeps.

THE MAYOR

(He prays) You didn't leave him as an orphan Lord. You sent the Comforter, the Holy Spirit to comfort him. Holy Spirit comfort my brother. Amen.

A13 - EXTERIOR - DAY - THE MAYORS HOME

THE MAYOR IS ARRIVING AT HIS HOME. UP WALKS A YOUNG 15 YEAR BOY CARRYING A GUNNY SACK OVER HIS SHOULDER. HE REACHES INSIDE IT, NODS AT HIM WITH A BIT OF A SMILE AND SLIPS A PACKAGE INTO HIS HAND AND CONTINUES WALKING. THE MAYOR OPENS IT UP AND FINDS A BIBLE IN IT. HE GASPS AND LOOKS UP TO FIND THE YOUNG MAN BUT HE'S GONE.

A14 - INTERIOR - DAY - THE PRISON

THE YOUNG MAN ARRIVES AT THE PRISON WHERE WRUNKEN IS AT. HE A BIT NERVOUS AS HE CARRIES THE GUNNY SACK. HE'S SEARCHED AS HE GOES IN TO VISIT BUT THEY ONLY FIND CLOTHING AND FOOD. HE'S LET INTO HER CELL AND AFTER THE GUARD LEAVES, HE EMBRACES HER, TAKES OFF HIS CAP AND PULLS OUT A BIBLE AND GIVES IT TO HER WITH A BIG SMILE ON HIS FACE.

> YOUNG MAN The Mayor received his package.

A15 - INTERIOR - DAY - THE MAYORS HOME AND HE IS IN HIS STUDY

THE MAYOR IS IN THE COMFORT OF HIS SMOKING PARLOR, SITTING BY THE FIRE WITH 2 BEAUTIFUL OLD IRISH WOLFHOUNDS, SMOKING A PIPE, AND HAS A GLASS OF BRANDY. THE MAYOR THUMBS THROUGH THE BIBLE TO FIND A NOTE A FROM WRUNKEN. INSIDE THE NOTE IT SAYS:

> WRUNKEN'S VOICE OVER "Blessed are those who are persecuted because of (MORE) 14.

WRUNKEN'S VOICE OVER (cont'd) righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me. Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you." Matthew 5:10-12.

THE MAYOR

(lifts up his glass of brandy and takes a puff on his pipe). Well, the will of the Lord be done. (He toasts to the Lord) Here's to you Jesus.

CUT TO WRUNKEN SITTING IN THE COLD PRISON CELL. NO COMFORT, WET, COLD AND RODENTS RUNNING AROUND. AN EXTREME CONTRAST BETWEEN HERSELF AND THE MAYOR. BUT SHE HAS THE COMFORT OF CHRIST ON HER COUNTENANCE.

A16 - INTERIOR - DAY - THE PRISON - 5AM IN THE MORNING

THE JAILER IS AWOKEN BY TWO MEN KNOCKING AT THE PRISON DOOR. THEY HAND HIM A LETTER AND HE READS IT.

MAN 1 Here's a release letter from the Duke of Alba for Wrunken. Today is her execution day.

The jailer takes the letter, breaks the seal and reads it.

JAILER Give me a few minutes to awake her and bring her out to you.

CUT TO WRUNKEN DREAMING. SHE'S IN A ROOM, PREPPING HERSELF BEFORE A BIG MIRROR WITH HER ATTENDANT WHO IS PREPARING HER HAIR AND HER DRESS TO GET MARRIED. SHE'S NERVOUSLY ANXIOUS.

ATTENDANT

What do you want me to work on the most? What's the most important thing for you to accentuate for your husband to be? Your hair, your dress, your shoes...What do you want give to him the most? WRUNKEN Souls...many, many souls.

Wrunken wakes up with the jailer gently calling her name.

JAILER Wrunken...Wrunken, wake up. It's time to go.

He gives her a cup of something hot to drink and a biscuit .

WRUNKEN Do I have time to make myself presentable?

JAILER (in tears)of course.

The jailer returns with a small mirror and a basin of water and a rag. He also hands her a dress.

> JAILER My wife made this for you, would you like to wear it today?

Wrunken takes the dress and holds it up to herself with a beautiful smile on her face.

WRUNKEN It's perfect. Thank you.

JAILER No. Thank you for sharing Jesus. We'll see each other again in eternity.

They give each other an embrace.

A17 - EXTERIOR - DAY - GOING TO THE CITY WALL

THE INQUISITOR AND HIS MEN ARE RIDING IN A HORSE DRAWN CARRIAGE AND THEY HAVE WRUNKEN IN CHAINS, WALKING BEHIND THEM. THEY'RE PARADING HER THROUGH THE CITY. PEOPLE ARE TAUNTING HER, CURSING HER, MOCKING HER. THE CAMERA IS SHOWING IT ALL FROM HER PERSPECTIVE. VARIOUS INDIVIDUALS ARE SHOWN; IN PARTICULAR, MR FRANS WIFE IS INSIDE A CLOTHING STORE. SHE'S TRYING ON CLOTHING AND AS SHE GLANCES OUT THE WINDOW, SHE SEES WRUNKEN. IT'S AWKWARD FOR HER. SHE HAS A DRESS IN HER HANDS AND DROPS IT OUT OF CONVICTION. SHE RUSHES OUT OF THE DOOR AND MEETS UP ALONG SIDE WRUNKEN. MRS FRANS

I am so sorry Wrunken ... for what my husband was hired to do. I am the guilty one...don't blame my husband when you see him at the wall.

The procession stops as there is an interruption.

MRS FRANS Wrunken, what would you like written in memory of you on the wall?

WRUNKEN

Revelations 12:11, And I overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of my testimony; and I loved not my life unto the death.

MRS FRANS (trying to remember she repeats the verse) Revelations 12:11

She's interrupted by the merchant who was selling her clothing.

MERCHANT Ma'am, this would look just wonderful on you!

MRS FRANS Would it? (In frustration and conviction of what's going on).

She walks away from the merchant and the procession in conviction.

(under her breath) I am as Judas.

She walks a little distance and then her eyes meet with the Inquisitor, who's in the carriage. She turns away and sees a poor young girl by the road, in tattered clothing. She approaches her and smiles.

MRS. FRANS I have something to give you. My name is Mrs. Frans. What's your name? ISABELLA My name is Isabella.

MRS. FRANS Well Isabella. I have a very special gift for you at that store over there.

She points to the store where she was just at looking at clothing. Isabella's eyes light up. What's colour of dress would you like?

Isabella points to Wrunken and the dress she's wearing.

ISABELLA

That colour.

MRS FRANS That's a good choice.

She takes Isabella's hand and walks across the street to the store. They enter and Mrs. Frans talks to the merchant taking a coin out of the bag.

Please, take this and clothe this young girl in a beautiful white dress.

MERCHANT

Certainly. I have the exact dress in mind for you, it should fit you perfectly!

Mrs. Frans discreetly pulls out the coin bag with the remaining coins she had received from the Inquisitor and slips it into Isabella's bag that's strung over her shoulder. She whispers in her ear.

> MRS FRANS In memory of Jesus and Wrunken.

Isabella peaks inside the bag and her eyes light up.

ISABELLA

Thank you.

MRS FRANS Don't thank me, thank Jesus.

Mrs. Frans walks out of the shop.

ISABELLA (whispers under her breath) Thank you Jesus.

A18 - INTERIOR - DAY - AT AN ORPHANAGE

THERE ARE ABOUT 25-30 CHILDREN IN A CLASSROOM SITTING AT THEIR DESKS, THEY'RE ALL READING OR DRAWING, THEY'RE OCCUPIED. THE OWNER OF THE ORPHANAGE IS IN THE KITCHEN CHECKING OUT HER FLOUR CANISTER WHICH SHE FINDS EMPTY. SHE GOES TO HER SUGAR CONTAINER AND FINDS IT EMPTY. SHE PROCEEDS TO LOOK AT HER PANTRY AND IT'S PRETTY WELL ALL BARE. SHE IS OVERWHELMED WITH THE NEED TO PROVIDE A MEAL FOR THE CHILDREN. IN TEARS SHE PRAYS.

JOHANKA

Praying from Philippians 4:19 Lord, I know you asked me to open this orphanage. You said you'd provide everything I would need according to your glory and riches in Christ Jesus. Jesus, I commit these children to the work of your ministry and commit myself to train them up in your way. All for your glory.

As Johanka is praying, Isabella bursts in giving her the bag.

ISABELLA

Johanka, Johanka! Look what was given to me today by a kind lady in the street!

Johanka takes the bag from her looking very surprised, trying to calm her down. She opens it up and sees the dress and the coins.

ISABELLA

She gave it in the memory of Wrunken who is about to be martyred today.

Johanka's eyes brim up with tears as she looks at the dress and the money, marveling at an answered prayer.

> JOHANKA Quick, take this and run to the baker and purchase bread for our meal and lets make ready to go to the city wall to see Wrunken.

A19 - EXTERIOR - DAY - AT THE CITY WALL

THE MAYOR HAS ARRIVED BEFORE THE PROCESSION THAT IS BRINGING WRUNKEN TO THE WALL. HE WALKS TO THE WALL AND SEES MR. FRANS AND THE OTHER BRICKIE. MRS FRANS HAS ARRIVED ALSO, HAVING LEFT THE PROCESSION AND THE LITTLE GIRL.

THE MAYOR Mr. Frans, I only have one request for you to do. Make sure you bury this Bible with Wrunken.

He slips Mr Frans a small Bible that's wrapped in a cloth.

MR FRANS Well, what good is it for Wrunken in here? She can't read it or hold it and will die within a short time.

THE MAYOR Yes, I suppose so.

MRS FRANS Sir, if you don't mind, I know of someone who would love to have this Bible.

THE MAYOR Really, who might that be?

MRS FRANS

A very poor young orphan girl, Isabella, that is in our city that I met today. I had the privilege of clothing her with a beautiful white dress, as per her request of color of course, after seeing Wrunkens dress.

MR FRANS

You bought her a dress? Where did you get the money to do that?

MRS FRANS

Well, it is better to give than to receive, especially at a time like this. Besides that, I believe she has a very special call on her life, like Wrunken. MR FRANS (whispers to her) Am I working for nothing?

MRS FRANS No, your labour is not in vain, the Lord will provide for us.

THE MAYOR She sounds absolutely perfect. Is this from the orphanage that Johanka runs?

MRS FRANS Yes, that's the one.

THE MAYOR

Absolutely perfect. Please see that she gets this Bible...in memory of Wrunken. I would very much like to meet Isabella. Can you arrange that Mrs Frans?

MRS. FRANS Well, seeing that you're the Mayor, I don't see that as a problem.

He hands Mrs. Frans the Bible. She tucks it in her bag and whispers under her breath.

MRS FRANS

Quoting from John 12:24 Except a kernel of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

As they are speaking, the procession with Wrunken is seen coming down the road.

A20 - EXTERIOR - DAY - CITY WALL

THE INQUISITOR WITH WRUNKEN BEHIND THE CARRIAGE ARRIVE AT THE PLACE AT THE CITY WALL THAT HAS BEEN HUED OUT. THE GUARDS UNCHAIN WRUNKEN FROM THE BACK OF THE WAGON AND PULL HER TO THE HOLE IN THE WALL. THEY'RE ROUGH AND BRUTISH IN THEIR ACTION WITH NO REGARD OF HER BEING A YOUNG GIRL TO THE POINT THAT THE CROWDS ARE ALMOST SHOCKED AT HOW HARD THEY ARE ON HER. IT'S A QUICK TRANSITION. INQUISITOR (speaking to Mr. Frans) Well, what are you waiting for, start bricking her in.

Mr. Frans is overwhelmed with what's happening that he's shaking and trembling as he picks up a stone and mortar. He lays the first stone at her feet.

WRUNKEN

(looking at Mr. Frans quoting from Matthew 21:42) The stone which the builders refused is become the head stone of the corner. Jesus was rejected and so I am rejected.

CUT TO SHOT OF JOHANKA, ISABELLA AND THE ORPHANS ARRIVING TO THE WALL. THERE IS AN EYE TO EYE CONNECTION WITH WRUNKEN AND ISABELLA. WRUNKEN GIVES THEM BOTH A NOD OF RECOGNITION.

> JOHANKA Isabella, Wrunken was an orphan in our home, like you are. She loved Jesus with all of her heart. (looking at Isabella) Like you Isabella.

Wrunken looks at Mr. Frans, with her eyes looking at the orphans she whispers to herself.

WRUNKEN These are who Jesus died for and this is who I die for today.

As Mr. Frans is laying the stone, he looks up at the orphans, barely able to contain his emotions. He's very humbled as he sees what's really transpiring with Wrunken's decision. He has a flashback to his conversation with his wife when they were disputing about Wrunken disobeying the law of not reading the Bible in her own language. This is the scene;

> MRS. FRANS I can't believe you turned this job down! That was triple your salary, it could have put bread on the table for the next few months.

> MR. FRANS Am I Judas? Is my last name Iscariot? This is our fellow Protestant, our sister in the Lord!

MRS. FRANS Sister in the Lord or not, she rebelled against the orders of King Philip II and should not have read the Holy Bible.

SCENE CUTS BACK TO MRS FRANS COMING UP BEHIND ISABELLA AND SLIPS THE BIBLE WRAPPED IN A CLOTH INTO HER BAG WHICH THE MAYOR HAD ASKED HER TO GIVE TO ISABELLA. ISABELLA PEERS BRIEFLY INTO THE BAG, SEE THE BIBLE WRAPPED IN CLOTH AND SMILES.

> MRS FRANS A Bible for you, in memory of Jesus and Wrunken.

ISABELLA Thank you, but why me? I'm an orphan.

MRS FRANS But Jesus never left you as an orphan, he sent the Holy Spirit to comfort you.

Isabella's eyes well up with tears.

ISABELLA I know. Thank you.

MRS. FRANS Don't thank me, thank Jesus.

ISABELLA Thank you Jesus.

A diverse crowd is present at the wall, young & old, sympathizers and opponents, even a few who are demon possessed are there. They're all voicing their thoughts and opinions, some in favor, some sympathizers. An official with the Inquisitor walks up to Wrunken.

> OFFICIAL Wrunken, so young and beautiful yet to die. You can change your mind young lady.

> > WRUNKEN

How can I change my mind? I have the mind of Christ, I hear his voice and no other voices do I listen to, including yours.

OFFICIAL Well, not even your fathers voice?

FLASH BACK TO WRUNKEN AS A LITTLE GIRL IN THE ORPHANAGE WITH JOHANKA. A VISUAL OF THE FATHER BRINGING WRUNKEN TO THE ORPHANAGE AND WAVES GOODBYE AS WRUNKEN IS WITH JOHANKA. HER FATHER IS A SIMPLE MAN, A PAUPER, NOT HAVING ANYTHING IN HIS LIFE. JOHANKA IS LOOKING CLOSELY AT WRUNKEN, CHECKING TO SEE IF THERE ARE ANY PHYSICAL SIGNS OF ABUSE BUT THERE AREN'T ANY. SHE INTRODUCES HERSELF TO WRUNKEN.

JOHANKA

Hi Wrunken, my name is Johanka.

WRUNKEN But where's my father?(Wrunken starts to cry)

JOHANKA

(In a comforting way embracing her) He has gone to work very hard to help provide for you stay here for a short while. He loves you very dearly. And God willing he'll be back soon. But in the mean time, this is your home and I will look after you Wrunken.

Johanka gives Wrunken a hug.

BACK AT THE CITY WALL, THERE ARE VARIOUS SHOTS OF THE CROWD, WITH A SHOT OF HER FATHER WHO IS HORRIFIED WITH WHAT'S HAPPENING. HIS HEAD IS HANGING LOW AND HE'S IN TERRIBLE AGONY SEEING WHAT'S HAPPENING TO HIS DAUGHTER AND YET KNOWS HE CAN'T STOP ANYTHING AND ANYTHING HE WOULD SAY WOULD PUT HIM IN JEOPARDY OF LOOSING HIS LIFE. HE'S UNDER THE FEAR AND THE TYRANNY OF THE RELIGIOUS SYSTEM.

The bricks are being laid over Wrunken and only the brick that would cover her face is left.

OFFICIAL (trying to get her to repent) You will suffocate and die in here!

WRUNKEN I will be with Jesus.

OFFICIAL (for the last time trying to persuade her) Repent - just say the word and you will go free. WRUNKEN Oh Lord, forgive my murderers.

As Wrunken says this, the last brick is placed over her face to entomb her. Various shots of the crowds reaction, including her fathers.

A21 - INTERIOR - DAY - THE MAYORS HOME

ISABELLA AND JOHANKA HAVE ARRIVED AT THE MAYORS HOME, IT SHOWS THE ADOPTION OF ISABELLA. THE MAYOR AND ISABELLA HAVE A PRIVATE MEETING, AND THEY OPEN THE BIBLE TOGETHER TO READ. IT REVEALS THAT EVEN IN PERSECUTION, THE CHURCH GROWS AND THE DEVIL CAN'T STOP IT THROUGH BRUTAL MURDERS.

MAYOR

Well, what a pleasure it is to meet you Isabella. You remind me so much of Wrunken, you have a similar spirit about you.

ISABELLA That spirit is that of the Holy Spirit!

MAYOR

Ah yes, many a time sitting with Wrunken I sat listening to her talk about the Holy Spirit. I had the privilege of Wrunken praying the prayer of salvation and leading me to the Lord. Well, what is in your heart to do?

ISABELLA

(Pausing) The main concern is that the orphans that I live with would be taught the Bible and that I'd have a place where we could read it and learn it.

MAYOR I have exactly the place to do that! Follow me my child...daughter! Is that ok if I call you my daughter now that we've adopted you?

ISABELLA Yes, of course. I'd love to call you my father! The Mayor leads her down a staircase that has a private entry. Mr. Frans is doing the finishing touches on the wall that hides the entrance. They enter into a large underground printing press, where people are printing off the Bible for distribution. Beside it, is a large room that is fully furnished to facilitate a classroom.

ISABELLA

(In utter amazement) This is absolutely perfect father!

MAYOR

This is what Wrunken had hoped to set up prior to being arrested. It was her vision but she was unable to fulfill it. But now Isaballa, we can finish it.

ISABELLA Yes...thank you father....thank you Jesus!

The End

This is a fiction script based on the true store of Wrunken and her death.
