

September 16, 2015

Tonight, Salvation Theatre watched the “Apostle Peter and the Last Supper” by PureFlix. A beautiful movie on the Apostle Peter at the end of his life. He’s in prison in Rome A.D. 67 with two jailers watching over him. One in particular is intrigued by this famous disciple who’s now in his custody and can’t help but be drawn to Peter, who recants to him how Jesus called him and the life he lived as a disciple and friend of Jesus. Having only a few days in his custody, he too is convicted and convinced that Jesus is the Messiah and Son of God and receives him as his personal Saviour. It’s precious to see Peter’s humility and authority as he testifies of salvation and at the same time, being taunted by the devil who continually tries to bring up Peter’s past failures. It’s a must watch!

