The Billy Graham Evangelistic Association has put out a lot of excellent movies, testimonies, tracks, literature and the like. This week we watched a very old period movie, from 1953 entitled Oiltown U.S.A. It was excellent. The story is about a rich Texas oilman whose pride and self-sufficiency has gotten him worldly success but at the cost of his family and fellow industry peers. It's highly evangelistic and if you like period pieces, this is excellent!
