

June 4th, 2016

It's incomprehensible that a parent would sell their child for money, yet it has been going on around the world for centuries and probably since the beginning of time. Many times in developing nations, the perpetrators lie to the parent saying that they have a good job for them in the big city and that the child will be able to support the parent even with the money they earn. So they give the parent money but it's almost certain that the child will become a child laborer or a sex slave and never see their parents again. Caged No More deals with the later. A heart riveting reality of check that this is not only transpiring in developing nations but in North America. John 10:10 says; "The thief (devil) does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly." Unequivocally, it's the thief who is the perpetrator that has access into the lives of men and women who does such heinous crimes against children and we must keep that in perspective. Jesus comes to give life in abundance.

