Have you ever gone through so many battles where it seems as though fear and failure seem to prevail? Who hasn't, right! As Christians though, a measure of faith has been given to us and if tapped into and used, can move mountains. Prayer and faith in the life of a believer is an unstoppable force and will bring the victory every time. Facing the Giants is such a movie. Grant Taylor digs deep into his heart by faith to believe God for the impossible with his football team, personal finances and also infertility. It's full of action and drama and will stir you in your walk with Christ to believe for the impossible.
