A.D. The Bible Continues. As you've been reading our Illustrated Message Series on Holy Spirit Power, We decided to watch again this television miniseries which is based on the Bible, done by Roma Downey and Mark Brunett, albeit has a lot of Hollywood interpretations added in. It focuses on the works of the disciples in the Book of Acts. For the most part it gives a good general overview of what transpired but one needs to go the Bible itself, read along, to be able to see what is truth and what the Directors have added for marketability.
