Didn't My Father give Me the name, Jesus? Didn't My Father tell Mary, and you shall call His name, Jesus? Didn't My Father tell Joseph in the dream, you shall call His name, Jesus? I Am the Son of Man and I Am the Son of God, and My name as the Son of Man is Jesus. When they cast out the devils, didn't they say, Jesus I know, Paul I know, but who are you? Use My name, shout My name, when you feel backed up into a corner, shout My name. For I Am the Son of God, I Am the Lamb that was slain from the foundations of the earth, I Am the bread of life, I Am the wellspring of living water, I Am the hope for all nations, I Am the Peace, I Am the King of Peace I Am the Prince of Peace. My Name is Jesus, above My name there is no other. Oh, yes, satan would like to magnify himself as greater, but remember I defeated him at the cross. I came as the Son of God and I came the Son of Man, and I died and I defeated Him. Doesn't My word say that I stripped him of his power, that I defeated death, hell and the grave, so use My name. There is no name that is higher than My name. There is no name that is higher than My name, says the Lord. So don't be ashamed of My name, for if you're ashamed of My name when you're in trouble, if you're ashamed of My name, even in the good times when things are rolling good, I will be ashamed of you before My Father. So don't be ashamed of My name, don't be ashamed to decree My name, to declare My name to the heathen and yes even to those who are Christians, who call themselves Christians yet are ashamed to speak My name. So speak My name at all times and in every season, says the Lord.
