

Word of Prophecy – Pastor Richard – February 17, 2019

Yes, when I hung on the cross, when I was crucified, when I was stripped of My clothing, when they cast lots for My robe, it looked like I had no victory, it looked like I was defeated. It had the appearance of defeat. I'm not mocked says the Lord, I have the final say. Did I not rent the curtain that kept you from the Holy of Holies, that divided you from My presence, did I not rent that curtain from top to bottom? Did I not shake the foundations that brought terror into those who mocked Me that day?

Yes, I have the final say, says the Lord. Even the son of perdition that rose up against me, one of My own disciples. Did he not hang himself? Did I not have the final say, says the Lord? I'm the Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. If any man wants to follow Me, he's going to have to pick up his cross and die to self. Just as I picked up the cross and I died to self, you have to pick up the cross, you have to take a hold the cross and you have to walk it out. You have to walk out the persecution, you have to walk it out. You have to trust Me, that when I say I defeated the devil when I died on the cross. You have to trust Me, when I say I went in and took away the keys from death, hell and the grave. You have to trust Me, says the Lord. I have the final says, says the Lord, in everything. I'm the beginning and the end. There is no one else that has authority over Me, says the Lord. I have the final say, says the Lord.

Could the grave hold me? No. Could the grave keep Me in the grave? No. I said I would rebuild the temple, and did I not resurrect from the dead, did I not rebuild My temple? I AM who I say I AM. My word is true.
