For I want you to know today, to not undermine your praise. Don't undermine your praise. For have I not said that I inhabit the praises of My people? Haven't you read in My word where Paul and Silas in the worst of the worst, lifted up their voice in praise to Me, and what did I do? I set them free. Can't you remember Joshua, how they walked around the walls of Jericho and on the last day, they walked and they shouted and the trumpets sounded out, and didn't I bring deliverance to them? It wasn't by the arm of the flesh, it wasn't by their own will, it because they were looking to Me, the Author and Finisher of their faith, and I set them free.

Have I not said in My word over and over again to lift up your voices with a shout of praise? Haven't I said in My word over and over through King David, that no matter what you're going through, to lift up your voices in a shout of praise? So, don't undermine the power of worship, don't undermine the power of praise today. It doesn't matter what's going on in the world.

I know what's going on. You think I don't know what's going on? I know what's going on. But I don't want you to set your eyes on the things of the world, I want your eyes, your affection, your love, your hope, your peace to be set on Me, because I will fill you with peace, I will fill you with deliverance, and I will even fill your hearts with songs of deliverance as you worship Me.

And don't you think that the devil won't fight you in worship, don't you think that the devil, the adversary, won't fight you. That was his place, that was his place, but he got puffed up, filled with pride, and I kicked him out. And he thought, 'well, I'm gone, all the worship is gone'. But he had it so wrong. I have made a people for Myself; I have made a creation for Myself to worship Me. And that's why I've given you voices to worship Me, that's why I've put a song in your heart in the middle of the night, that's why I've put a song in your heart in the middle of the day.

So, don't be silent. Lift up your voice, all the time, all the time, all the time. Don't undermine the power of worship, don't undermine the power of praise that comes from your lips today, when I'm the only one that can hear it. It's just like prayer. Close the door, be in the secret place, and as you up your voice in worship to Me, don't you think that I won't hear it? Oh, I'll come running, I'll come running, because I love hearing the voice of My children sing to Me, I love hearing their voices sing to Me, says the Lord.
