- * Any adjustments or changes to a ministry area should only be made with the guidance of an acting Pastor. This is to ensure we make right decisions and that everyone is on the same page.
- * Please, to the best of your ability, end your ministry I.e. children and youth prior to end of 'Big' church. This way your members are prepped to exit.
- * Arrival time: 8:15 am. Remember, when we're all on time, it makes the process breezy.
- * Please be sure to participate in unload, set up, tear down and reload.

Always keep this in mind as a minister.

When we walk into church, we focus on ministering to others... Every word we speak and every choice we make is so that someone else will look good. Let's be confidently humble, enjoy who we are and be the best at it.

P. Greg

I was looking for the right words to express how much I appreciate each of you. Then, I recalled Paul's words.

I thank my God every time I remember you. In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now, being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.

It is right for me to feel this way about all of you, since I have you in my heart and, whether I am in chains or defending and confirming the gospel, all of you share in God's grace with me. God can testify how I long for all of you with the affection of Christ Jesus.

And this is my prayer: that your love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight, so that you may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ—to the glory and praise of God.

Understanding the role of Elders:

Elders are the caretakers of the House. Ron and Jason serve within the body but also take on the responsibility of protecting and covering the people and ministry of 24/7 Family Church. So, the church is not led by just the Pastor, but by the Pastor along with counsel, insight and wisdom provided by the eldership of 24/7 Family Church. Their responsibility is Spiritual, physical and legal.
