“Delve into the rich mosaic of life captured through themes of family, the natural world, and the captivating charm of science. My quilts are a celebration of vivid hues, crafting a charming patchwork of feelings and memories. I blend both contemporary and classic textiles with reclaimed and upcycled elements in my creations. Nestled in the core of Winters, California, every thread narrates its own tale, eager to be discovered. Enter this enchanting domain where art surpasses the usual confines, and imagination is boundless.”

1:00 - 2:00 Challenge Awards, Raffle Drawings, Silent Auction Winners
