

Daufuskie Island Restaurant Directory

The following pages present general information about Daufuskie Island businesses offering food & drink. Most businesses have seasonal hours, with the “season” being roughly May through October. However, individual businesses will establish their own “seasonal” hours.

Some businesses may offer weekly or seasonal specials in addition to their regular menu, so it is best to check on their website or the Daufuskie Island Food & Beverage Facebook page to follow business hours and menu specials. The Facebook link and individual restaurant website links are provided at the bottom of this site. Hours, menus and prices are subject to change. See new Guide to Visiting Daufuskie following restaurant webpages list. Transportation, shopping, activities and things to see!
