

1. Individuals with disabilities will work harder , faster and smarter.
2. Individuals with disabilities are reliable, confident employees and overall have a higher job retention rate.
3. Individuals with disabilities are less likely to get into work-related accidents.
4. Businesses that hire individuals with disabilities are more likely to receive tax credits or work incentives.

5. Individuals with disabilities are loyal and hard-working and have a lower turnover rate.

As an individual And an employee with Autism, Tourette syndrome and a lot of the underlying conditions. I am a reliable and confident employee. I have not had any work-related accidents and the 5 Plus year tenure that I have had at Walmart. I have overcome the impossible, to become the possible. I really will Work harder, faster, and smarter than any other employee.

Thank you and have a wonderful day

Adam Farris