

LaTasha graduated from the University of Central Florida, with a Bachelors Degree in Organizational Communication and a Master of Science in Human Resources Management. She currently resides in Atlanta, GA. Her Mom is a United States Army Veteran having served and lived overseas; as well as many other duty assignments throughout the United States. The “Army Brat,” lifestyle afforded the opportunity for LaTasha and her brother to live and attend schools internationally and gather many life long friendships along their military journey. LaTasha has followed in her footsteps of being a civil servant.

One of her goals, is to spread financial literacy, and credit education. She loves helping others get on the right path to financial freedom. It is so important to teach the younger generation, to prevent them from learning through trial and error.

LaTasha was featured, and recognized for her contribution to the community in the June 2022 edition of “Shout Out Atlanta.”

She has become a Regional Best Selling Author. Her books are sold on platforms such as Amazon, Barnes & Noble, Walmart, Target, and Books a Million.

She is excited to change lives, and assist others in breaking generational curses. She is passionate about family, cultivating positive relationships, and making a positive impact in everything she does.

ARTICLES

- <https://www.camdenarknews.com/news/2023/feb/25/latasha-woods-promotes-financial-literacy-to>
- <https://www.eldoradonews.com/news/2023/feb/23/literacy-event-shining-spotlight-on-black-authors>

Dollars and $ense; Financial Literacy for Kids Testimonial

My nephew loves this book
He reads this book every day for the most part. So simple and easy to understand for kids and some adults. He has expensive taste lol like most kids.
-Desiree Pledger

TOP DRAFT PICK Testimonial

Great read! Very good storyline.
Great book...the author does a great job making the events develop as though they are right before your eyes. I look forward to a sequel. - Gerald A Maree

Dollars and $ense; Financial Literacy for Kids Activity Book

CONTACT

- www.latashawoods.com
- lwoods1273@gmail.com
- @lsavoy73

