4. Scheduling

- A. Client will receive a dedicated day and time of the week where there will be an appropriate school horse and with a group of riders with similar ability reserved each week.
- B. If client cannot make their time during the week, Roxbury Riding Club will allow one makeup lesson per month, to be used within 30 days. Makeups are allowed if 24 hours notice was given to cancel the original lesson. Makeups are subject to availability. Monthly tuition is still due in full when students miss their riding lessons. In the event that weather prevents riding, unmounted horsemanship lessons will be substituted. Horsemanship lessons are an essential part of becoming a well-rounded horse person, and are a lot of fun too! The best way to get the most out of the program is to make it a priority and a commitment not to miss your dedicated lesson time(s).
- C. If client would like to make a long-term change to their dedicated lesson time, they may do so a maximum of 1 time in a 60 day period by calling Katie at 720-979-6728 and leaving a voicemail.

- D. Roxbury Riding Club is unable to prorate tuition for any reason, however you may “gift” a lesson to a friend if you are unable to attend, with approval from trainer.
- E. For riders who are leasing a horse from RRC: the minimum lesson package for a half lease is Subscription B with 2 training rides required per month. The minimum lesson package for a full lease is Subscription C with a weekly training ride required. This ensures the horse maintains its training and does not develop any bad habits.
For clients with privately-owned horses in training: training packages may be cancelled at any time, however unused or partial training will not be refunded.
