Paperback- RRP £9.99

Dreyma will return in 2027 in a new upper middle-grade series.

In the thrilling conclusion of the series, a new school year brings change as Dreyma returns from her summer adventure, only to find dark magic etched into her skin. Now thirteen and more powerful than anyone anticipated, Dreyma must navigate a treacherous path filled with secrets and betrayal. With help from the enigmatic Mistress Olufemi, a Velakrosi elf, and the return of her missing elf tutor, Dreyma delves into an abandoned tower and is once again thrust into danger. As Master Bainok stands powerless and her guardian Kyna turns away, Dreyma's last hope lies with Kuku the Langwyth and the surprisingly adept yet carefree Vaschel—a literature tutor with a knack for words but a reluctance for adventure.

Hollie's plan was simple: sprinkle some magic on her 'Cosy Cats' charity shop and finally get her groove back. Enter Vince, the younger, outrageously handsome handyman who makes her feel like the lead in her own soap opera. He's supposed to renovate her shop, not electrify her quiet, divorced life. But the sparks are mixed with danger. Vince's upcycling business is tied to the very con artist who stole Hollie's husband, and with every discovery, it looks like his charm is just the pretty wrapping on a terrible lie.
