Article Title: Fingerprint Fabrication <http://fingerprintfabrication.com/Home.html>

Date Published: web site accessed 2011-06-10

Author: Gregory Walker

Article's Subject Matter:

This web site was passed on from SWGFAST. It lists kits for fabricating fingerprints. The site also provides expert testimony for cost.

Key Points in Article

- "Fingerprints don't mean you committed the crime. It can also mean someone used a fabricated print to throw off investigators. The prosecution wants to use your fingerprint to perjure your witness that states you were with them at the time of the crime"

Fallacies and Issues

- "fingerprints are frequently fabricated" this statement is very misleading as there has only been a few documented fabricated fingerprint print case.
- At some point this will be raised as an issue in Court.
