

Gatlinburg Law Enforcement Conference Vendor Show May 6 -9, 2024

The vendor show associated with the Gatlinburg Law Enforcement Conference is held to provide attendees of the conference an opportunity to network and learn about innovative practices and products for professional police services.

The Conference dates are May 7, 8, 9, 2024 and is being held at the Gatlinburg Convention Center in Gatlinburg, Tennessee. This conference has been in existence for over 25 years and has attendees from state, local and federal agencies from six states and 15 United States Attorney Districts.

Booth spaces are $825.00 for two and a half days of the three-day conference. Set up will be on May 6, 2024. Electric and dedicated internet is available at additional cost and can be arranged upon request with the Gatlinburg Convention Center. A portion of the booth fees will be a tax-deductible donation to the Kentucky Association of Chiefs of Police Foundation.

In addition to booth spaces, there are Sponsorship opportunities to allow partial or full sponsorship of food and beverages during breaks during the conference. All food and beverages provided during the conference must be purchased from the Gatlinburg Conference Center's approved caterer.

For more information, please contact Allen Love at 859-619-8751 or email alove@kypolicechiefs.org

Booth spaces are limited. Please contact us and reserve you space today to become a vendor at the Gatlinburg Law Enforcement Conference.

Register to be a Vendor

See below information concerning the KACPF:

Kentucky Association of Chiefs of Police Foundation

The Kentucky Association of Chiefs of Police Foundation (KACPF) is the charitable affiliate of the Kentucky Association of Chiefs of Police Association (KACP). It is a 501(c)(3), not-for-profit foundation, established in 2009 to solicit, receive, administer, and expend funds for law enforcement-related charitable and educational purposes.

Tax deductible gifts can be made to the Foundation to carry out its charitable and educational programs and activities. The Foundation is governed by a Board of Directors made up of current and former members of the Kentucky Association of Chiefs of Police Association, other active chief law enforcement officers, interested citizens and corporate and community leaders.

Mission

The mission of the Kentucky Association of Chiefs of Police Foundation is to support, provide and assist in the professional development of law enforcement executive training, police supervisory and command training, and other police related training. The Foundation is also committed to providing opportunities for recruiting and supporting members of the Commonwealth of Kentucky to enter the law enforcement profession and to support other charitable endeavors which serve Kentucky's law enforcement community and the public at large.

Goals

The Foundation strives to collaborate with corporate partners, private associates, KACP members, and other organizations to accomplish the following goals:

- Sponsor the annual KACP Training conference;
- Sponsor executive, command and supervisory training and education programs for law enforcement officials;
- Support programs that enhance and promote professionalism and ethics in Kentucky law enforcement;

Contact

For more information, contact foundation@kypolicechiefs.org