Comfort Knit/Crochet & Quilt Programs

VOLUNTEER INTEREST

The mission of Hopewell House is to provide the most compassionate and innovative care to those at the end of life, in a home-like setting. To shape and share what it means to “live well in the presence of death.”

Thank you for your interest in volunteering for Friends of Hopewell House Comfort Knit/Crochet & Quilt Programs. The gift of handmade items will warm and comfort not only patients, but families and caregivers as well. We hope by participating in the program, you will discover and pass along, through your hands and heart, the peace and understanding that surrounds the end-of-life process.

Please review the guidelines sheet for the knit/crochet or quilt project you are interested in.

Complete this interest form, save, and attach the file and return to Julie MacKenzie at:

communications.craft@fhhpdx.org Or, if you prefer, print, complete and mail the form to Julie MacKenzie c/o Hopewell House, 6164 SW Capitol Highway, Portland, OR 97239.

Once you have submitted your interest form, knitters/crocheters and quilters will receive an email with instructions for completing projects, including suggested patterns, yarns/fabrics, and delivery information. For other volunteer positions, your interest will be acknowledged, and a follow-up contact scheduled.
