

Sinead McNamee, from Donegal, with Kieran O'Malley and Orta Hurney, Renmore, at the opening of Hyde Bar and Gin Parlour, Forster Street.

have supported them so well throughout the season.

Renmore's U-16 side continues to impress with a victory over Athenry in that age group's premier league last week. A towering Daniel Hugman header, coupled with goals from the talented winger Hamsley Okomah and midfielder Martin Murniks gave them a 3-1 win over Athenry. Gary Nolan's side next game will be against the champions Salthill Devon as they will be looking to overturn a 1-0 defeat earlier in the season.

Golf outing

Paddy Connolly, Captain of the Renmore Golf Society looks forward to welcoming all members to the May outing tomorrow, Saturday, to Cregmore Golf Club.

He will also be welcoming members of the Eir Golf Society and the Huntsman Golf Society, all of whose members and teams will play for the annual McDara Glynn Challenge Trophy. The tee is reserved from 9.30am to 1pm.

The Joint Renmore AFC last man standing winners PJ Coyne and Mark Donoghue. The club extends its thanks to Tommy Bradley for sponsoring the tickets and Stuart Donoghue for his work organising the fundraiser.

Galway Musical Society members Alana Power, Vice Chairperson, Regina Power and Maghan Power at the launch of the society's production of 'The Hired Man' at the Connacht Hotel. They were all involved in the production of the musical in 1997.

Castlegar

Cake sale for Féile fundraiser

The U-14 camogie and hurling teams are participating in this year's Féile na nGael tournament in June, hosting teams from Cork and Dublin respectively.

Both teams are hosting a joint fundraising cake sale at Masses in Castlegar Church on Saturday, and Sunday, May 26 and 27. Your support for this event would be very much appreciated

Hurling fixtures

Castlegar will take on Salthill-Knocknacarra tomorrow, Saturday in the Minor A Hurling Championship. The game, in Carnmore, will throw in at 2pm.

On Monday, in the U-16 A1 hurling championship, Castlegar will host Ardahan at 6.45pm.

On Saturday, May 19, in the U-12 hurling League, Castlegar will host Athenry at 11am.

Active Retired

Members of the Castlegar Active Retirement Association (CARA) are organising a trip to Knock Shrine on Thursday, May 24.

A bus will leave Castlegar Church at 11.30am. Tea and sandwiches will be served on arrival at Knock. Mass will be at 3pm. The bus will leave Knock at 5pm and, after it arrives back in Castlegar, dinner will be served at the Galway Plate restaurant.

Anyone who wants to travel, should book their place by Tuesday, May 22, by ringing Emily on 087 6192616 or 757108.

The girls' soccer team from Castlegar School who reached the county final. Back row, from left: Izzy Fahy, Maebh Madden, Caoimhe Callaghan, Julla Scott and Lauren O'Reilly. Front row: Abl Glennon, Caoimhe Madden and Kayleigh Small.

CARA will hold its next get-together this Tuesday, May 8, at 10.15am in the Galway Plate.

Cards results

First prize in last week's card games went to Gabriel Corless and MP Lynam. Second prize went to Seamus and Nora Forde. Table Prizes went to Larry Mannion and Brid Mannion. Tom Corcoran and Peter Sheehan, Kathleen Higgins and Brid Higgins. Door prizes were won by Michael Donnellan, Willie Hynes and Jimmy McGrath.

Clean-up day

The Castlegar Residents Annual Clean-Up Day will be held on, Saturday, June 9, at 11am. Bags can be picked up at Castlegar National School/Castle.

People can drop off bags to the area opposite castle when full. Residents are asked to pick rubbish close their homes and remove weeds from roadside. High-viz vests and gloves must be worn.

Children under 12 are not allowed to take part.

The Residents Association are asking people to pick up litter close to their homes on a regular basis. The Tidy Towns contest starts in July.

Local notes

Any news items or photos for inclusion in the Castlegar Notes of the Galway City Tribune should be emailed to castlegarparishnews@yahoo.com. Wednesday 12 noon is the deadline.