Gymnastics Club camps continue

The Renmore Gymnastics Club, which has been running recreational Summer Camps since earlier this month, will continue to run the camps until the end of August. The camps cater for children from four to 12 years of age and run from Monday to Friday from 9.00am to 2.30pm daily. The cost per child is €80 or €85 for non-members and each child receives a specially designed camp tee shirt.

The summer camp programme features surprise themes each week as well as gymnastics, arts class. There will also be a dance aerobic workshop for girls and circuit training for boys.

There are special half day offers at cheaper rates also available this year. Further details can be obtained by logging on to <http://renmore-gymnastics.org> or by phoning 086-3713198.

History Society

At a recent meeting of the Renmore History Society in Dún Uí Mhaoilíosa a committee was elected to oversee the running of the society for the coming season. The following officers were elected – Chairperson, Richard O'Hanlon; Deputy Chairperson, Greg Crowley; Secretary, Brian MacGabhann; Technical Support Officer, Karina Hensel; Travel/Events Officer, Eugene Jordan and Working Member, Joe Loughnane.

At the meeting details were finalised regarding the society's trip to Berlin. The trip will take place from October 25 to October 28 next when 25 members of the society will depart from Dublin.

It is intended that the committee will meet three or four times during the season and shortly it will consider plans to celebrate the tenth anniversary of the founding of the group. It will also finalise plans for a day-trip before the end of the summer.
