

Renmore

Preparing for annual panto

DETAILS of the annual Renmore pantomime will be announced at a reception next Tuesday at the Bon Secours Hospital, Renmore at 6.30 p.m.

The Renmore Pantomime Society has been producing shows for the last 35 years and this year's production is Robin Hood and the Babes in the Wood. It will be staged in the Town Hall Theatre from Sunday, December 29 until Sunday, January 12 with a variety of matinees and evening performances to cater for all age groups.

Meanwhile, the Renmore Pantomime Society is anxious to contact all of the cast and crew of the 1989 production of The Wizard of Oz.

On the night of January 4 in the Town Hall Theatre at 7.30pm the society will host a Silver Jubilee Gathering of the cast and crew of The Wizard of Oz and during the finale of this year's pantomime the cast from 1989 will be introduced on stage. All involved in the 1989 pantomime are encouraged to contact the society.

Dympna and Bernard Shapiro at the Renmore AFC 40th anniversary celebrations at The Huntsman. Bernard is a founding member and Honorary President of the Club.

Conor and Trish Molloy and Una and Mike Kelly pictured at the Renmore AFC 40th anniversary celebrations at The Huntsman.

History Society

The second talk of the current season of the Renmore Barracks History Society took place last Thursday in the lecture hall of the USAC building and was attended by a large gathering of members.

Comdt Pdraic Kennedy, the Director of Military Archives at Cathal Brugha Barracks in Dublin delivered the talk on the Irish Volunteers.

His illustrated lecture outlined the formation of the volunteers and the role that they played from 1913 up to the 1916 Rising.

He combined the talk with an overview of the role of the military archive at Cathal Brugha Barracks and its function as a resource centre for scholars, researchers and authors.

Clir Terry O'Flaherty and Angela and Norbert Sheerin, Renmore Residents Association, at the Renmore AFC 40th anniversary celebrations at The Huntsman.

Angela Mulgannon, Anna Marie Craughwell and Norahella Flaherty at the Renmore AFC 40th anniversary celebrations at The Huntsman.

Credit Union AGM

The Annual General Meeting of St Columba's Credit Union will be held on Monday, December 9 in the Clayton Hotel, Briarhill at 7.45pm.

Chairperson of the Credit Union, Paddy O'Donnell has issued a statement to re-assure members of the safety of their savings and investments.

"Given the current economic climate, it is only right that every credit union makes responsible and prudent decisions going forward. Our priority at St Columba's Credit Union is to protect our members and to serve their needs, whilst ensuring the safety of their savings."

He invited people who were reviewing their finances for the year ahead to call into the St Columba's offices in Mervue, Renmore, Claregalway or Oranmore to see how its services could assist them.

Anybody who was experiencing financial difficulty or had general questions about St Columba's was also welcome to call, the statement concluded.

Members are encouraged to attend the AGM where all questions will be dealt with in the open session.

Carols for Hospice

Fourteen-year-old Clare Quinn from Renmore will be performing a selection of Christmas Carols and songs at the Galway Christmas Market on Saturday, December 7 at 3pm.

Clare, who is a second-year student at the Dominican College, Taylors Hill, will be performing to raise funds for the Galway Hospice Foundation in Renmore and all are invited to support this worthy cause.

Stephanie Murphy from Renmore pictured with her five year old twin daughters Keeley and Taylor after she was conferred with a Higher Diploma in Intensive Care Nursing at NUI Galway.

Soccer fixtures

Renmore travel to Cregmore tomorrow, Saturday, morning to play Cregmore/Claregalway at 9.30am in the Billy Fitzgerald U-12 Premier Division League.

Also tomorrow in the Under 14 Division 1 League, Renmore play host to Knocknacarra B at 12.30pm and in the Western Hygiene Supplies Division 3 League, Renmore play Bearn na Forbacha in Renmore at 2.00pm.

On Sunday in the U-16 Premier Division League, Renmore travel to the New Village pitch to play Oughterard at 1.00pm.

Mike and Peggy Brennan at the Renmore AFC 40th anniversary celebrations at The Huntsman.

RIGHT: Galway West Fine Gael TD Brian Walsh gets a warm handshake from the Taoiseach Enda Kenny in the Meyrick Hotel on Friday night as he depart after his day-long visit to Galway. PHOTO: JOE TRAVERS

