

Wedding Painting

with Donna Gibb

Have your Wedding Day captured on canvas

"We just love the painting. It is absolutely gorgeous."

It captured everything about the wedding day - people, happiness, laughter, a bright sky, a lovely garden and Melbourne skyline. I have shown your artwork to my family and friends and they really like it. A big thank you for this amazing piece of art and for many hours and efforts invested in this by yourself, Hannah and Matthew to capture our special moment."

Michelle and Bilal

"We love looking at our painting every day. So much better than photos kept in a drawer."

Cressida and Martin

Est in 2000, Donna Gibb created the unique concept of painting live with guests at Weddings, Birthdays, and events.

With this history of experience, you can trust Donna and her team to bring the very best art experience to your wedding.

Your Guests, add to the canvas with Our Artist's guidance. They also write a message on the back. OR

We can capture a special moment on canvas. Guests do not interact with the painting, but can watch the artwork being created.

Either way, this is the BEST MEMENTO you can have from your wedding, a Bespoke Wedding Painting designed by Donna Gibb.

travel.tipple.taste We absolutely adore art and have collected pieces throughout the world. We wanted something unique, in place of a photo booth and wondered if a live artist would be possible.

We discovered the incredibly talented Donna Gibb, a live wedding artist who by chance was based in our home town. Besides her amazing talent, a unique aspect when engaging Donna was that our guests also contributed to the art work! Each brush stroke adding layers to a piece of art that we'll smile upon forever more. The guests even added personal messages as our guest book on the rear of the canvas.

Donna and her gregarious husband Terry were with us all day - from ceremony through to late in the evening. We'd already workshopped the visual design together prior which incorporated elements of our day such as our cars, ceremony venue, reception venue ... even our fur children! Every single guest was painted in such intricate detail. This was the ultimate surprise for our guests on the day and the finished piece reflects the love, support and memories of our wedding day perfectly.

"Thank you Donna and Terry. You both made our day so special & we LOVE this art work. You guys are the best." Chris and Ian Glancy-Shaw

Creating memories on canvas

Make Your Wedding a Standout.

There are two ways to create a Wedding Painting

The most popular option is the:

“Captured on Canvas Collaborative Artwork Package”

This is a great way to entertain guests, while the wedding party are having their photography session.

With the Premium Package, we also take candid photography and videos of guests adding to the canvas, so you can see which “bit” they did.

Guests are invited to add to the Canvas and sign a message on the back.

With consultation, Donna will design an artwork with the Wedding Couples special moments included. One of our Wedding Painting artists or Donna will attend to paint your wedding.

The painting is started during the pre-dinner drinks and is continued during the reception. The artwork is then taken back to studio, where it is enhanced and if required, people are painted in before delivering back to the couple.

Another option is the:

“Artist in Residence” Package.

We can capture a special moment on canvas painting live at your wedding. This could be the moment when the wedding couple are first married, when they arrive at the reception, their first dance, or what ever the couple request.

Guests are not invited to add to the canvas, the canvas is smaller and the painting, an impressionist style, can be finished at the wedding. Guests still enjoy watching the artwork come to life.

There are occasions where the wedding couple want a more elaborate design including more guests painted in which does require extra hours in the studio and price reflects that. Quote is given after discussion of design elements.
