AND THERE'S SOMETHING EERILY BEAUTIFUL WHEN YOU HEAR, UPON DOCKING, THE SOUND OF THE BADGER'S HORN AND THE SOUND OF ITS ANCHOR DROPPING INTO THE WATER.

FRIDAY, JULY 26, 2013

WE HAVE A BUSY DAY AHEAD OF US. AFTER BREAKFAST (WHICH IS SERVED STARTING AT 6:00 A.M.), WE'LL BE GETTING ON THE SCHOOL BUS AT 8:00 A.M. FOR A RIDE OVER TO ALGOMA WHERE WE'LL VISIT THE FLYING PIG (RESTROOMS AVAILABLE). SUSAN AND HER CO-WORKERS ARE LOOKING FORWARD TO OUR VISIT, AND ARE BUSY GATHERING AN INTERESTING INVENTORY OF HAND-CRAFTED PIGS FOR OUR PERUSAL AND PURCHASE – NOTHING IS IMPORTED OR MASS PRODUCED. KAREN STOPPED IN THERE LAST WEEK, AND SHE SAYS SUE AND HER GROUP ARE DOING A GREAT JOB OF GATHERING WONDERFUL ITEMS.

AFTER ABOUT AN HOUR OF SHOPPING (AND GAWKING), WE'LL GET BACK ON THE BUS AND HEAD OVER TO GREEN BAY FOR A TOUR OF LAMBEAU STADIUM (PIGSKIN, YOU KNOW). AFTER OUR TOUR, WHICH ENDS WITH A SPECIAL SURPRISE, WE'LL HAVE A WISCONSIN-STYLE FOOTBALL STADIUM LUNCH AT CURLY'S PUB. CURLY'S PUB WAS NAMED IN HONOR OF EARL LOUIS "CURLY" LAMBEAU, WHO WAS THE FOUNDER, A PLAYER, AND THE FIRST COACH OF THE GREEN BAY PACKERS PROFESSIONAL AMERICAN FOOTBALL TEAM. AFTER LUNCH, WE'RE HEADED BACK TO MANITOWOC.

WHEN BACK IN MANITOWOC, WE'LL TAKE A SHORT "REFRESH" BREAK AT THE BEST WESTERN. ABOUT 2:45 P.M. WE'LL TAKE A WALK (1 MINUTE; 0.04 MILES) OVER TO THE MARITIME MUSEUM WHERE WE ARE GOING TO TAKE A TOUR OF THE USS COBIA, A WORLD WAR II FLEET SUBMARINE THAT IS MOORED ALONG THE MANITOWOC RIVER. THE USS COBIA IS KNOWN AS A 'PIG BOAT' (SERIOUSLY – NO KIDDING) DUE TO FOUL LIVING CONDITIONS AND AN UNUSUAL HULL SHAPE. THE TOUR SHOULD TAKE ABOUT AN HOUR, AFTER WHICH PEOPLE WILL BE OFFERED THREE CHOICES. THEY CAN STAY AND TAKE A TOUR OF THE MARITIME MUSEUM, THEY CAN WALK BACK TO THE HOTEL, OR THEY CAN TAKE A BUS RIDE TO "WEST OF THE LAKE GARDENS". THE GARDENS ARE STATE-RENOWN AND ARE ABSOLUTELY BEAUTIFUL ! DON, THE HEAD GARDENER, WILL GIVE US A GUIDED TOUR OF THE GROUNDS. HE SAYS THAT WE'LL BE SEEING THE GARDENS AT A GREAT TIME – THE FLOWERS WILL BE MAGNIFICENT !

ABOUT 5:30 P.M. WE'LL HEAD BACK TO THE BEST WESTERN SO THAT EVERYONE CAN TAKE A SHORT BREAK. AT 6:15 P.M. WE'RE BACK ON THE BUS TO GO TO DINNER AT "THE CLUB" – A RESTAURANT ON A GOLF COURSE OVERLOOKING LAKE MICHIGAN. WE ARE GOING TO HAVE A TRADITIONAL WISCONSIN FRIDAY-NIGHT FISH FRY WITH ALL THE TRIMMINGS. NOTE: COFFEE, TEA AND DESSERT WILL BE SERVED BACK AT THE HOTEL AT 8:15 P.M.

AFTER DINNER WE ARE GOING TO HEAD BACK TO THE BEST WESTERN, TAKE A SHORT BREAK, AND THEN AT 8:00 P.M. MEET IN THE HAPPY PIG COLLECTOR'S CLUB CONVENTION ROOM. AS MENTIONED, WE WILL HAVE COFFEE AND DESSERT, AND THEN WE WILL PLAY PIG-ON. WE WILL ALSO TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY TO REVIEW OUR PLANS AND AGENDA FOR SATURDAY'S ACTIVITIES.

PIG-ON RULES: THESE RULES ARE PRETTY SIMPLE: WE WANT EVERYONE TO PARTICPATE (THERE WILL BE PRIZES FOR ALL), AND EVERY PARTICIPANT MUST WEAR A 'PIG' ARTICLE OF CLOTHING – COULD BE A SHIRT, A HAT, SOCKS – WHATEVER -- DOESN'T MATTER. I DON'T THINK IT GETS EASIER THAN THAT.

PLEASE NOTE THE FOLLOWING:

EVERYTHING INVOLVING TODAY'S (FRIDAY'S) ACTIVITIES WILL BE PAID FOR – EXCEPT – ANY PURCHASES MADE AT THE FLYING PIG. YOU MUST PAY FOR THOSE ITEMS YOURSELF.

EXCEPT FOR THE FIRM DEPARTURE TIME OF 8:00 A.M., TIMES ARE APPROXIMATE – WE'LL DO OUR BEST TO STAY ON SCHEDULE.

SATURDAY, JULY 27, 2013

AFTER BREAKFAST (WHICH IS SERVED STARTING AT 7:00 A.M.), WE WILL BE MEETING FROM 8:00 A.M. TO 11:30 A.M. IN THE HAPPY PIG COLLECTORS CLUB CONVENTION ROOM. FROM 8:00 TO 10:00 A.M. WE WILL HAVE MY FAVORITE ACTIVITY, BUY AND SELL TIME. FROM 10:00 TO 11:00, WE WILL HAVE SHOW AND TELL TIME, AND FROM 11:00 – 11:30 A.M. WILL BE 'LEARN A NEW CRAFT' TIME. AT 12:00 NOON WE WILL GET ON THE BUS AND HEAD OVER TO KAREN'S HOUSE (ABOUT A SIX-MILE DRIVE). UPON ARRIVAL, WE WILL TAKE THE GROUP PHOTO.

PLEASE NOTE: BASED ON COMMENTS MADE AT LAST YEAR'S CONVENTION, IF YOU WANT TO BRING A "GOODY" FOR THE GOODY BAGS, THERE WILL BE A GOODY-BAG TABLE SET UP AT KAREN'S HOUSE. PLACE THE GOODY(S) ON THE GOODY-BAG TABLE AND PEOPLE CAN HELP THEMSELVES. KAREN AND I WILL PROVIDE THE BAGS. (FOR LACK OF AN ACTUAL COUNT, WE ARE CURRENTLY BASING QUANTITIES ON AN ATTENDANCE OF 60 PEOPLE.)

THE BAGS WILL INITIALLY BE USED AS SEATING (PLACE) CARDS ON THE LUNCH TABLES. WHEN YOU FIND THE BAG WITH YOUR NAME ON IT, YOU WILL HAVE FOUND WHERE YOU WILL BE SITTING FOR LUNCH. THIS ARRANGEMENT ALLOWS PEOPLE TO SIT NEXT TO AND TALK TO PEOPLE WHO THEY MIGHT NOT KNOW OR WHO THEY MIGHT NOT HAVE SEEN FOR A VERY LONG TIME. OF COURSE, IF YOU REALLY DON'T LIKE WHERE YOU WILL BE SITTING....

A PIG-THEMED BUFFET WILL BE SERVED AT 12:30 P.M. IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING LUNCH WE WILL TAKE A LOOK-SEE AT KAREN'S AND MICKEY'S PIG COLLECTIONS. THERE WON'T BE THOUSANDS ON DISPLAY, BUT HOPEFULLY THE ONES WE WILL HAVE WILL BE OF INTEREST.

AT ABOUT 2:00 P.M. WE WILL GET ON THE BUS AND HEAD OVER TO BEERNTSEN'S – THE CHOCOLATE PIG SHOP. BEERNTSEN'S HAS BEEN IN BUSINESS SINCE 1932 AND IS HOUSED IN ITS ORIGINAL HISTORIC LOCATION – THINK TIN CEILINGS AND WOODEN BOOTHS. IN ADDITION TO THE CHOCOLATE PIGS, THEY MAKE A VARIETY OF CHOCOLATES AND SERVE THE VERY BEST ICE CREAM AND SUNDAES. OUR LUNCHEON BUFFET DESSERTS ARE GOING TO BE DELIBERATELY LIGHT SO THAT WE'RE NOT SO FULL WE CAN'T PARTAKE OF BEERNTSEN'S DELECTABLES. (NOTE: ALL PURCHASES MADE AT BEERNTSEN'S ARE THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE INDIVIDUAL.)

AFTER OUR TRIP TO BEERNTSEN'S WE WILL HEAD BACK TO KAREN'S HOUSE. FROM THE TIME WE RETURN UNTIL DINNER AT 6:00 P.M., THERE WILL BE A VARIETY OF ACTIVITIES AVAILABLE. YOU HAVE YOUR CHOICE OF ANY OR ALL OF THE FOLLOWING: RELAXING ON A CHAIR IN THE SHADE OR SUN OR HOUSE, GOING FOR GOLF CART OR PADDLE BOAT RIDES, PLAYING CROQUET, BADMINTON, HORSESHOES, BOCCE BALL, VOLLEYBALL OR PIG TOSS -- AND -- YOU WILL BE ABLE TO MAKE A PIG FLY. OH, YEAH, WE'LL ALSO HAVE A 'PIGÑATA'.

FOR DINNER AT 6:00 P.M. WE WILL BE HAVING A PIG ROAST (WHOLE PIG) OR ROASTED PIG (NOT A WHOLE PIG) -- APPARENTLY IT DEPENDS ON THE NUMBER OF PEOPLE WHO WILL BE EATING. (PIG DISCUSSIONS ARE ON-GOING WITH THE CHEF.) WE WILL ALSO BE SERVING ROASTED/BROASTED CHICKEN, ALONG WITH ALL SORTS OF SIDE DISHES. AFTER DINNER WE WILL HAVE THE BUS TAKE US TO THE HOTEL FOR OUR EVENING'S ACTIVITIES. WE WILL MEET IN THE HAPPY PIG COLLECTORS CLUB CONVENTION ROOM AT 8:00 P.M.

WHEN WE GET SETTLED, WE WILL START THE EVENING WITH OUR BUSINESS MEETING. MINUTES AND THE TREASURER'S REPORT WILL BE HANDED OUT AT THE MEETING. AT THE CONCLUSION OF THE MEETING WE WILL ATTEND TO THE FOLLOWING ACTIVITIES.

SILENT AUCTION – IT WAS MENTIONED AT LAST YEAR'S CONVENTION THAT SOME PEOPLE WANTED TO PROVIDE AN ITEM FOR A SILENT AUCTION. THE FIRST 12 PEOPLE RESPONDING WILL HAVE A SPACE AT THE TABLE. KAREN AND I WILL BE PROVIDING CLIPBOARDS, PAPER AND PENS – YOU WILL PROVIDE THE ITEM AND DESCRIPTION. THE PIGS CAN BE PLACED ON THE SILENT AUCTION TABLE FRIDAY NIGHT OR SATURDAY MORNING. THE WINNERS WILL BE ANNOUNCED SATURDAY NIGHT.

SO PICK YOUR BEST PIG FOR YOUR CHOSEN CATEGORY AND HOPE FOR A (BIG) WIN. GOOD LUCK.

THE PIGS CAN BE PLACED ON THE 'PIG CONTEST TABLE' FRIDAY NIGHT OR SATURDAY MORNING. THE WINNERS WILL BE ANNOUNCED SATURDAY NIGHT.

RAFFLE -- BECAUSE OF TIME CONSTRAINTS, WE'RE DOING SOMETHING A LITTLE BIT DIFFERENT THAN THE USUAL RAFFLE (HOPE NO ONE IS DISAPPOINTED). IF YOU HAVE A PIG YOU'D LIKE TO DONATE TO THE RAFFLE, PLEASE DO SO BY PLACING IT ON THE RAFFLE TABLE FRIDAY NIGHT OR SATURDAY MORNING.

AUSTIN STRAUBEL INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT – GREEN BAY (GRB)

AIRLINES SERVING GRB: AMERICAN, DELTA AND UNITED

DISTANCE TO BEST WESTERN HOTEL - MANITOWOC, WI: 42 MILES -- APPROX. 50 MINUTES DRIVING TIME

MILWAUKEE COUNTY'S GENERAL MITCHELL INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT (MKE)

AIRLINES SERVING MKE: AIR CANADA, AIRTRAN, AMERICAN, DELTA, FRONTIER, SOUTHWEST, UNITED, USAIRWAYS

DISTANCE TO BEST WESTERN HOTEL - MANITOWOC, WI: 90 MILES -- APPROX. 1.5 HOURS

FLYING INTO GREEN BAY WILL PROBABLY BE A LITTLE MORE EXPENSIVE THAN FLYING INTO MILWAUKEE, AND YOU MAY NOT GET A NONSTOP FLIGHT. HOWEVER, IT'S MY PREFERRED CHOICE WHEN I FLY TO WISCONSIN BECAUSE OF ITS PROXIMITY TO MANITOWOC. IT'S A VERY EASY AIRPORT TO GET IN AND OUT OF, AND IT'S VERY TRAVELER-FRIENDLY,

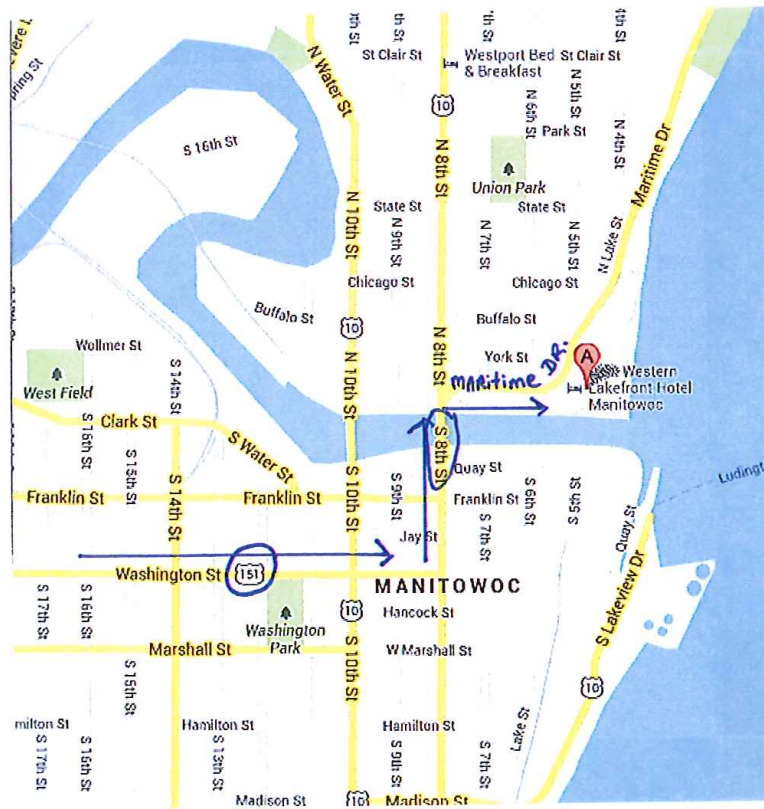

BECAUSE NO ONE IS GOING TO NEED A CAR IN MANITOWOC WHILE ATTENDING THE CONVENTION, I'M THINKING IT MIGHT BE NICE IF SOME SORT OF CAR POOLING COULD BE ARRANGED TO/FROM THE AIRPORT(S). IF PEOPLE WANT TO ADVISE ME OF THEIR TRAVEL PLANS/ARRANGEMENTS, I'M MORE THAN HAPPY TO SEE WHAT CAN BE ARRANGED.

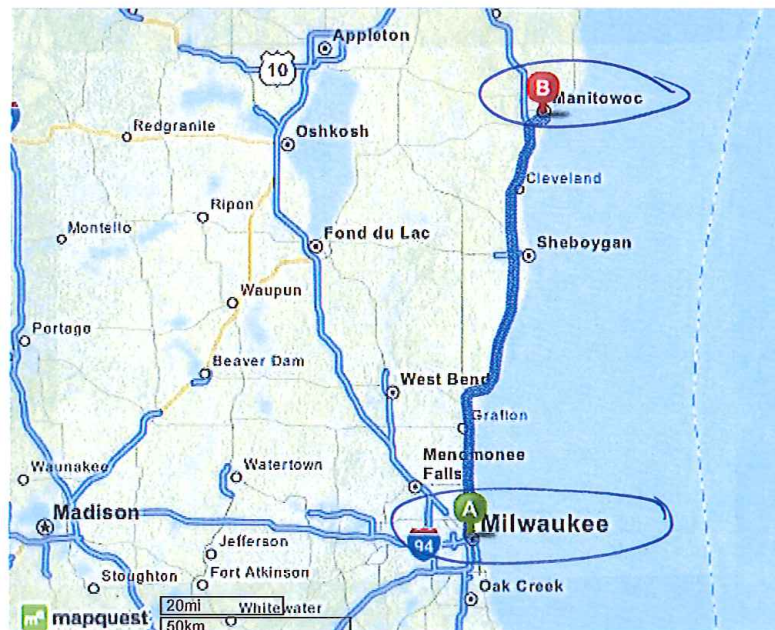

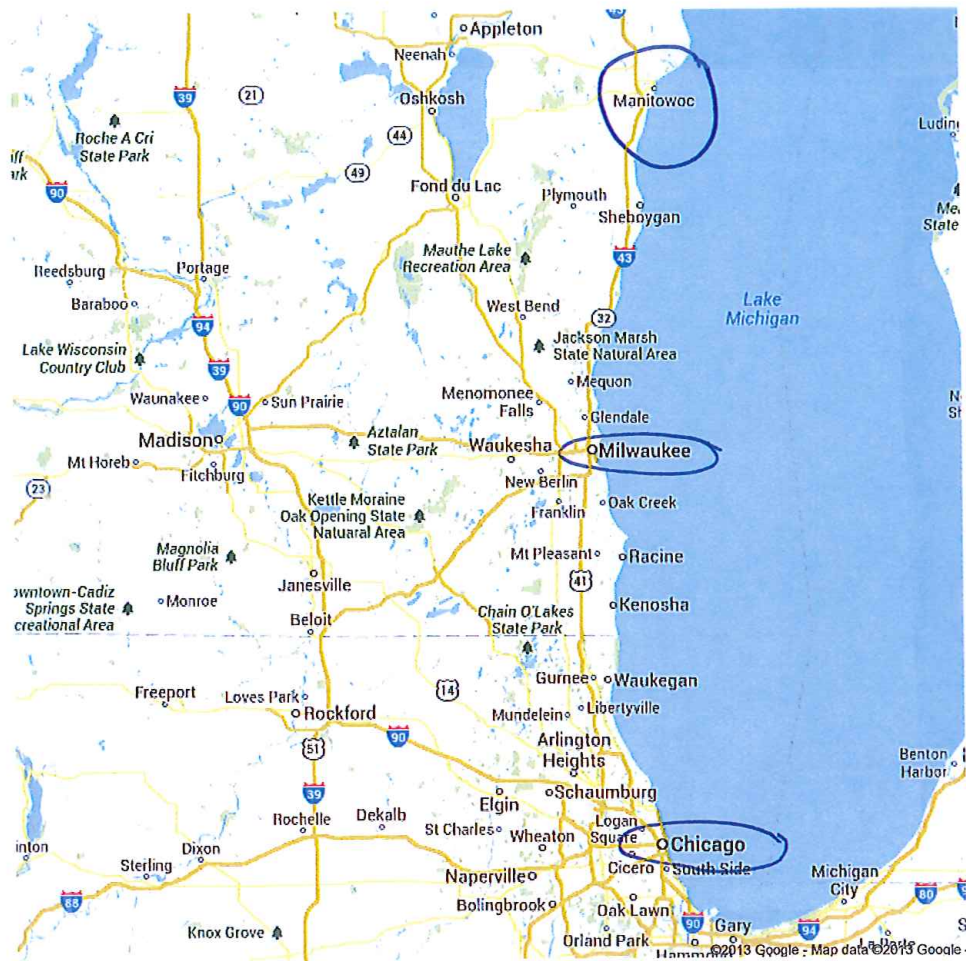

DIRECTIONS FROM MILWAUKEE WISCONSIN TO MANITOWOC WISCONSIN

BECAUSE PEOPLE ARE COMING FROM SO MANY DIFFERENT AREAS, I'M HOPING THAT EVERYONE WILL BE ABLE TO GET TO MILWAUKEE, AND THEN COME ON TO MANITOWOC – A DISTANCE OF APPROXIMATELY 81 MILES.

THE ADDRESS OF THE BEST WESTERN IS 101 MARITIME DRIVE. TELEPHONE NUMBER: 920.682.7000.

- (1) COMING OUT OF MILWAUKEE, GET ON I-43 NORTH, TOWARD GREEN BAY WI (75.5 MILES)
- (2) TAKE THE US-151 EXIT, EXIT 149 TOWARD WI-42-BR / MANITOWOC / FOND DU LAC (0.2 MILES)
- (3) KEEP RIGHT AT THE FORK TO GO ON US-151 NORTH (3.1 MILES)
- (4) TURN LEFT ONTO SOUTH 8TH STREET / US-10 WEST (0.3 MILES)
- (5) TURN RIGHT ONTO MARITIME DRIVE (0.1 MILES)

Message From The Head Hog's Pig Pen

JANET BOOTH

Hi and a great big oink to all you piggy lovin' people out there!

The big day is almost here. By the time you read this newsletter, you'll have just the right amount of time to pack your bags, plan your route, gather your pigs, and scoot up to Manitowoc, Wisconsin for our annual Happy Pig Collector's convention. If you're like the rest of us you're squealing oinks of joy just at the thought of it. Think of all the old friends you'll get to see, new friends to meet, and pigs a plenty to enjoy.

I can barely contain myself from the urge and anticipation. I'm so excited!!!

Here are my top ten reasons to go to the H.P.C.C. Convention:

- Number 10) Get to see the sights in and around Manitowoc, Wisconsin.
- Number 9) The chance to find and acquire new pigs.
- Number 8) Pig out on lots of good food.
- Number 7) Buying pigs in the Silent Auction.
- Number 6) Win the grand prize at the Best Pig Contest.
- Number 5) Oink in agreement at our club business meeting.
- Number 4) Show us (brag about) your favorite, most interesting pig at the Show and Tell.
- Number 3) See pigs you have never seen before.
- Number 2) Meet and mingle with others cursed with the same affliction just for the nonsense of it all.

And, drum roll please:

The Number 1) Reason: Pigs, pigs, pigs, pigs, pigs, pigs, pigs.....and more pigs!

See you all soon! I'm so excited!!!

Your Head Hog,
Janet

To market, to market, to buy a fat pig,

Home again, home again, jiggety-jig.

Although my collection doesn't contain many, I am always fascinated by the German Pink Pigs.

These turn-of-the-century porcelain mass-produced pieces are unusual and I love the detail in them.

Originally, believed to be bearers of good luck, according to German superstition, the pig theme was a natural for the American novelty market. Teddy bears, also the rage, were molded in similar detail, some figures incorporating both animals in their design. Most bear a generic maker-mark yet the production has not been narrowed down to one particular factory. Some of the figures were molded individually for a single, original design, while others were churned out by the thousands for mix and match purpose. Though most of the glazing is noticeably production-line, fingerprints are detected in the blushing on ear tips and snouts, giving them a personal anonymous signature.

Most of the figures contain a 'travel' theme, probably due to the popularity as souvenir items. They surely competed with etched cranberry-glass mugs and candy containers, to be taken home from a vacation spot. You can note the occasional town, city or state inscribed on the side of a figure, an American addition, yet some figures carry traces of their origin, such as the red-shingled roofs of Germany. Over 150 examples of these porcine porcelains are described and pictured in the book I have written by Cynthia Gaskill, THIS LITTLE PIGGY. I have attained my information from this book. I enjoy reading the history of my pig items and have picked up books and literature thru years of antique and thrift store shopping.

Hey, that's Mercy Watson! I love those books! I think I'll read them all again . . .

In the Spring 2013 issue of The Happy Pig, the adorable piggie in the center of the top row on page 15 (Famous Pigs . . . Is your favorite here?), just above Pumbaa, at Petunia's right elbow, is Mercy Watson. Mercy Watson isn't just any pig. She is a porcine wonder. At least that's what Mr. Watson and Mrs. Watson always say!

Mercy Watson is the shining star of a series of delightful children's books by Kate DiCamillo, marvelously illustrated by Chris Van Dusen. Mercy (a pig) lives with Mr. Watson and Mrs. Watson (who are people) in a house at 54 Deckawoo Drive. Mercy is their darling, their dear, their porcine wonder.

There are six books in the series:

Mercy Watson to the Rescue, 2005

Mercy Watson Goes for a Ride, 2006

Mercy Watson Fights Crime, 2006

Mercy Watson: Princess in Disguise, 2007

Mercy Watson Thinks Like a Pig, 2008

Mercy Watson: Something Wonky This Way Comes, 2009

The stories are cute and clever. The illustrations are joyous and exuberant in a colorful 1950s sort of way. The text and the illustrations complement each other very well.

At the heart of each story is Mercy Watson and her love of toast with a great deal of butter. Add in Mr. Watson and Mrs. Watson who simply adore Mercy; and the nextdoor neighbors, Eugenia and Baby Lincoln, a pair of elderly sisters. Eugenia, not a sympathetic character, does not like Mercy at all, but the sweeter-tempered Baby sees Mercy as a dear. The books add in additional quirky characters along the way. (I think my favorite is Leroy Ninker, "a small man with a big dream." He is a thief, but he really wants to be a big strong cowboy. Yippie-i-oh!)

The final book in the series does a skillful job of bringing together all the assorted characters introduced along the way, all mixed in with a drive-in movie theater (showing When Pigs Fly), popcorn with real butter, and of course toast, with a great deal of butter.

I'll leave you with Eugenia Lincoln's assessment of Mercy:
 "She is a sly pig . . . and things with her are never as they seem."
 I'm going to leave it up to you to decide if this is a fair description of our porcine wonder.

Yes, seeing Mercy's delighted face (with buttered toast and Eugenia Lincoln, in order of importance) in The Happy Pig made me want to read the books all over again, just for the sheer joy of it. And read them all again, I did. Such fun!

And for my next trick, I think I'll re-read all the Toot and Puddle books, skillfully authored and illustrated by Holly Hobbie. Toot and Puddle are pictured (Famous Pigs . . . Is your favorite here?) directly above Freddy diligently seated at his typewriter.

In many circumstances, a piglet without the use of its hind legs would be put down. But Chris P. Bacon's unusual condition has made him an international star and an inspiration to those with disabilities. When Chris was born in January, a woman brought him into Dr. Len Lucero's veterinary office in central Florida. The piglet's two back legs were deformed because of a congenital defect that left the joints fused together. Lucero said the woman thought the animal would need to be euthanized.

But Lucero watched as the baby potbellied pig crawled out of the carrier. "His front legs were down on the ground, his back legs were up in the air, and he was balancing and walking forward," said Lucero. "He was full of life. So I thought, there was no way I could put this thing down, I'd rather give him a fighting chance, at least if not at my home, I would find someplace for him."

Lucero, who lives on a farm in central Florida, brought the little pig home to his wife, two kids and menagerie of animals. The animal's official name became "Chris P. Bacon," but informally, they called him "Piggy." Lucero's kids loved him and snapped photos. The family dog, a black and white Australian Shepherd, became his protector. The doctor wondered how he could help the pig move easier and considered a set of wheels attached to a harness, similar to what some lame dogs use.

His son had a set of K'nex toys — with wheels and other pieces that snap together — and Lucero built a small cart and cobbled together a tiny harness. At first, the pig didn't like the harness, but then the tiny animal got the hang of the contraption. A couple of weeks later, Lucero was at a veterinary conference and met with a representative from handicappedpets.com, a Nashua, N.H.-based company that builds pet wheelchairs, harnesses and carts. That company built a special wheelchair for Chris and created a Facebook page for the pig.

Lucero videotaped one of Chris' first jaunts and put the video on YouTube, and a star was born. That video, dubbed "Pig in a Wheelchair," has gotten 1.2 million hits. His Facebook page has 56,000 "likes." Chris now has his own webpage, Twitter account, Pinterest site — and as of last week, a book deal. Hay House, a publishing house that specializes in self-help and motivational media, has signed Lucero to write three books about the adventures of Chris, the disabled pig. The first book, which is geared to children aged 4 to 10, will be out in the fall.

Chris, now 22 pounds and using a dog wheelchair, is seemingly oblivious to his new-found fame. He's been on the "Today" show and met Anderson Cooper. Now nearly 6 months old, the pig knows his name, comes when called and is housetrained. Lucero and his family take him outside several times a day, where he uses his wheels. Inside, Chris has a pen with plush beds where he can scoot around or nap in air-conditioned comfort. During a recent interview, he scarfed down his favorite foods: grapes and Cheerios.

It's possible that people are drawn to the piglet's tiny, cute body, or to his soft "uff, uff, uff" noises as he pulls himself around with his front hooves. But Lucero noticed something else: People were inspired by the little pig who wanted to walk and play. One commenter said her boyfriend had used a motorized wheelchair since 1988, telling Chris: "Keep chugging little man...keep chugging." Lucero and Chris now appear at fundraisers for disabled children, and Lucero is looking to start a foundation that helps people with disabilities. "I've actually gotten a lot of people on our Facebook site, people with disabilities, and people who have got recent disabilities. And they said that this little guy right here has inspired them to give it their all," Lucero said. "And that gives me the tingles in my arms every time I read something like that."
