

Auburn Heritage Association

Pine Hill Cemetery Lantern Tour

One will notice in Pine Hill, and in most cemeteries, there is an abundance of cedar trees and other evergreens.

It is common for a grave to be marked with a small cedar or evergreen if the family cannot afford the price of a man-made marker.

Evergreens symbolize eternal life, so there's a religious aspect to this symbol.