

Auburn Heritage Association

Pine Hill Cemetery Lantern Tour

Prior to Auburn being settled by white people, Creek Indians lived in this area.

During the 1836 Creek uprising, there was a settlement family named Jones who lived toward the back of the cemetery.

During the uprising, this Jones family was massacred, with the bodies of some found hanging in trees.