ACCURACY OF INFORMATION – First and last names on the Reservation Form must be exactly as they appear on required identification. Boarding of cruises will be denied if names on reservations do not exactly match passenger identification and no refund will be issued.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS – The cruise line's terms and conditions, including cancellation policies, documentation, and related requirements, apply. A copy of the cruise line's terms and conditions will be provided upon request. It is important to carefully read and understand the cruise line's terms and conditions.

FEES & TAXES – Departure fees and taxes are included in the prices listed on the cruise flyer. Cruise Brothers has no control over these fees and taxes. They are imposed by the cruise line and/or responsible government agency, and are subject to change up to the time of departure.

IDENTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS – A Passport valid for six months after the return date of your cruise is the required form of identification. Regulations are subject to change. It is the responsibility of each passenger to confirm identification and all other documentation requirements, including visas (www.travel.state.gov) and to have the required identification and related documentation when checking in for flights and/or a cruise. Without proper identification and related documentation, boarding of flights and/or the cruise will be denied and no refund will be issued.

FINAL PAYMENT – Payment must be received by Cruise Brothers no later than the date specified on the Cruise Invoice sent to confirm each reservation. The cruise line may cancel reservations if payment is not received on time.

CRUISE DOCUMENT AVAILABILITY – Royal Caribbean uses electronic cruise documents/tickets (e-docs). E-docs are generally available approximately three to four weeks prior to the cruise departure date, and are e-mailed to the addressee designated on the Cruise Invoice.
