

Child Safety Statement

The safety of our children is PCT's priority. With that in mind, the following policies will be followed.

1. Children will always be supervised.
2. Any adult in a supervisory role of minor children must pass a criminal background check. Adults who are in non-supervisory contact in productions with children will provide drivers license information to the designate PCT staff member to check for records of sexual misconduct. Meagan's Law Website or other sex offender websites will be utilized.
3. The rule of 3 is always in place. There will be at least 3 people present at any interaction involving adults and minors: 2 adults and one child or 2 children and one adult.in
4. No tobacco, profanity or inappropriate remarks will be used in the presence of children.
5. All efforts will be made to provide private, separate dressing areas for adults and children.
6. All performers (adults and minors) will wear "production" undergarments. These might be flesh-colored leotards/body suits, wind or bicycle shorts, tank tops, etc.
7. Adults who are in contact with children in classes/productions will be educated on our policy and asked to sign a copy.

Drivers License # and State Issued _____

I have read the PCT Child Safety Policy and agree to follow the above. Failure to follow will result in action by PCT. This may include dismissal from a show, or, if deemed necessary by the Board of Directors, contacting authorities.
